Ninevah Circle Has Shower For The Fred Smiths

By Mrs. Bill Hollingsworth Reporter

The women's circle of the Ninevah Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Lois Ferguson Tuesday night. Plans were made for the Homecoming program at the church on Sunday.

Mrs. Bill Hollingsworth led the devotions.

A household shower was given for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, whose home was burned a short time ago.

Those present were Mrs. Britt Smith, Mrs. Gene Ledford, Mrs. Hillingsworth, Mrs. John Smiley, Mrs. Jason Smiley, Mrs. A. D. Gifford, Mrs. Aze Griffin, Mrs. Harold Troutman, Stella Smiley, and Barbara Ferguson.

The W.M.U. held a benefit supper last Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kelly.

The W.M.U. has raised enough money to place a concrete walk from the side of the road to the steps. The rest rooms have been completed.

Crockett, Or Fox?

GREENEVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Irene Bewley, a resident of Davy Crockett's native Greene County, has done some boning up on Crockett lore and comes up with this shattering conclusion:

The cap the frontiersman habitually wore probably wasn't coonskin at all—it was fox skin.
