Peggy Jean Reeves Is Bride Of G. R. Inman, Jr.

Miss Peggy Jean Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reeves of Waynesville, became the bride of Gilbert Raymond Inman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Inman also of Waynesville, in a double ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church, Saturday, October 15, at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. T. E. Robinett, pastor of the church, officiated and the vows were spoken before an arch decorated with greenery and white gladioli.

The altar was banked with palms and ferns and vases of white chrysanthemums and branched candelabra were also used.

Mrs. Bob Wilson, organist, and Charles Isley, vocalist, presented the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, scalloped neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt, worn over crinolines, had alternating panels of lace and nylon tulle. Her two-tiered fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a cap of matching Chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls, and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Mary Reeves was her sister's maid of honor. Her dress of two-tone shrimp was of nylon tricot over net and taffeta, fashioned with modified torso bodice extending into a full flowing skirt with a panel in front. She wore a matching stole and hat and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Bates, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Dale Hall and Mrs. Bill Allison, all of Waynesville, and Miss Judy Abbott of Clyde.

Their dresses were of two-tone blue, similar in design to that of the maid of honor and they wore matching hats and carried mixed flowers.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Sara Ann Reeves, sister of the bride, Miss Lila Hancock of Tryon, cousin of the bride, and Miss Clara Jean Pless of Waynesville.

Cathey Isley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Isley, Jr. was flower girl and Richard Hightower, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hightower and cousin of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Kenneth Joel Burrell of Moody Air Force Base, Ga., and Waynesville, served as best man. Ushers were Harold McClure, Richard and Ernest Inman, uncles of the bridegroom and Paul Hightower, cousin of the bridegroom, all of Waynesville.

Mrs. Reeves, mother of the bride, wore a dress of grey lace over pink taffeta and an orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore black velvet with pink net over taffeta and her corsage was also an orchid.

The bridal party received in the vestibule of the church after which the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. For traveling the bride chose a blue velvet suit with black accessories and the orchid from her Bible.

Mrs. Inman was graduated last spring from the Waynesville Township High School and is now employed at the Unagusta Manufacturing Co.

Mr. Inman entered the Air Force following graduation from the Waynesville school in the spring of 1953. He served a year in Greenland and is now stationed at Lake Charles Air Force Base, Louisiana where the bride will join him later.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hancock of Tryon, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hancock of Greenville, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLeod of Roanoke, Va., the Misses Laura and Bertha McGaha of Newport, Tenn., Sgt. and Mrs. Bob Quale of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. J. C.
