Jesus Meets Human Needs

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Luke 5:1-8:16.

After preaching to multitudes from Peter's boat on the sea, Jesus told Peter to go further out and cast his nets. A tremendous catch resulted, and after taking it ashore, Simon Peter, James and John left all and followed Jesus.

Seeing Jesus, a leper threw himself at His feet asking to be made clean. Christ healed him. After this miracle, the fame of Jesus spread abroad, and great multitudes came together to hear Him and be healed of their infirmities.

A man afflicted with palsy was let down on his bed from the housetop to Jesus. Jesus forgave him his sins and healed him. Pharisees and doctors of the law accused Christ of blasphemy, saying only God could forgive sins.

Jesus chose the 12 Apostles: Simon Peter, Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, Matthew and Thomas, James, Simon, Judas, James' brother, and Judas Iscariot, the traitor. MEMORY VERSE—Luke 5:31, 32.
