

Haywood WSCS To Hold Mission Study

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Haywood County Sub-district will hold a mission study in four sessions at the Canton Central Methodist Church.

The sessions will be held for one and one-half hours on Wednesdays and Fridays, November 9, 11, 16 and 19, during the morning.

The study will be based on the book, "The Christian Mission in a Revolutionary World," written by Dr. Floyd Shacklock, director of World Literacy and Christian Literacy.

The purpose of the study is to discover the needs of the world, the conflicts of Materialism, Communism, and Nationalism, and the role of the ancient religions, stressing the responsibility of the Christian church.

Miss Louise Ballard of Lake Junaluska, district secretary of missionary education, will teach the course and will be assisted by Mrs. J. W. Fowler, Mrs. T. M. Rudisill, Mrs. Isabelle Walker, Mrs. Carroll Warren, and Mrs. Kenneth Crouse.

Methodist Juniors Get 'Treats' For UNCF

Members of the junior department of the Sunday School of the First Methodist Church chose a different kind of "treat" for Halloween.

These youngsters sought donations to the United Nations Children's Fund—a fund which helps supply milk, medicines, vaccines, clothes and other essentials for needy children in other countries.

The result of their efforts was a total of $35.20.

The Methodist boys and girls made their rounds Halloween night, the usual time for "tricks or treats," but they wore arm bands bearing the letters of the United Nations Fund, instead of the usual Halloween costumes.

In the group were Barbara Fie, Betty Carver, Emily Fisher, Margaret Wilson, Susan Dietz, Max Jones, Bill Cobb, Larry Leatherwood, Joe Jennings, Gene Boone, Sandra Cooper, Martha Jo Chambers, Janet Cooper, Amelia Gibson, Elaine Chafin, Marietta Campbell, Rita Fie, Carey Howell, Mary Penny, Ellen Freeman, and Temple Dulin. Mrs. Harvey Dulin is superintendent of the department of the Sunday School and she assisted with the plans, as did the teachers, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chambers, and Mrs. Claude Walker.

Following their drive, the boys and girls were served refreshments by Mrs. Zeb Curtis and Mrs. J. W. Fowler, Jr. in the church dining room.

Hats Will Be Gay For Holidays

AP Newsfeatures

Holiday hats will be as gay as the ornaments on the Christmas tree this year—and just as important in the festive scene.

The new slim silhouettes give added emphasis to hats in the current fashion picture—and the bare-headed girl will look strictly out-of-date in the holiday lineup.

Milliners of both New York and Paris interpret the bulkier silhouette in various ways, as demonstrated at a recent showing of holiday hats by the millinery industry. The peach basket shape is interpreted by Claude St. Cyr, of Paris, in a dramatic hat with black transparent petals forming the brim, and a tiny blue satin crown. The same milliner shows a striking deep cloche of stitched yellow satin banded with brown velvet, worn pulled down on the head and almost covering all the hair.

In the spirit of holiday gaiety is John Fredericks' small white satin pillbox in Empress Eugenie style with a point on the forehead, and a large jeweled ornament front and center.

Also prominent among the current headliners are many versions of the oriental turban, many little pastel satin sailors, modern adaptations of the Turkish fez and white hats.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert O'Donnell spent a brief time with Mrs. O'Donnell's mother, Mrs. L. E. Perry, last weekend while en route to their home in Jackson, Miss., from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stokes of Grandview are planning to leave tomorrow for their winter home in Whitehouse, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Gist Finley of York, S. C. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howell, Jr., last weekend.

Lancaster Smith, football coach at Jesuit High School in Dallas, spends his summers as an assistant district attorney, prosecuting criminal cases.

Average annual milk production per cow has increased from 3,960 to 6,080 pounds in Indiana during the last 20 years.
