

Waynesville Township High School . . . Mountain Meanderings

By BARBARA GRIFFITH and FLORENCE McBRIDE
Last Wednesday was a big day for the seniors of Waynesville High School. We were the guests of the Champion Paper and Fibre Co. The program was highlighted with some interesting talks on planning for our future, some movies, a delicious dinner, and was concluded with a guided tour through the mill. Everyone had a wonderful time.

The senior class elected superlatives this week for the high school annual. Those elected were: prettiest and best-looking, Patsy Holder and Donald Jordan; cutest, Nancy Long and David Kelley; sweetest, Dot Grasty and Jack Farmer; wittiest, Betty Brendle and Bill Prevost; most likely to succeed, Patsy Leatherwood and George Williamson; most intellectual, Joe Jack McEvoy and Barbara Owenby; neatest, Patsy Milner and Marvin Mills; best all around, Dale Hall and Ed Medford; most popular, Florence Bowles and Tommy Owen; most school spirit, T. L. Francis and Bobby Jean Radford; most athletic, J. W. Stevens and Myrtle Fitzgerald; most sincere, Clara Pless and Douglas Christopher; most studious, Sonia Snyder and Johnny Killian; most talented, Betty Hogan and Eddie Demour; class flirt, Barbara Jones and Hulan Ballard; friendliest, Peggy Davis and David Hannah; best dressed, Willie Grant and Jimmy Todd; most typical, Catherine Grasty and Jimmy Gaddis; best personality, Florence McBride and Milton Massey; most original, Barbara Griffith and Steve Woody.

Frank Arnette has arrived from Delmar Studios in Charlotte to begin work on the photography for the high school annual. The annual staff has gotten off to a good start.

Revival Services Are Being Held In Ninevah

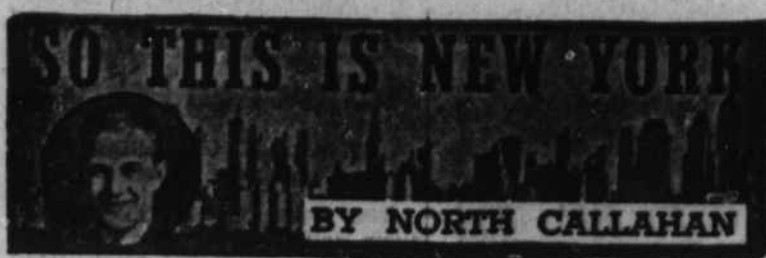

By MRS. AZE GRIFFIN Reporter
A series of revival services is underway at the Ninevah Baptist Church. The Rev. Bill Hensley of Enka, pastor of the Edgewood Baptist Church, is preaching each night at the service beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone is welcome.

The WMU met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. A. W. Griffin. The devotions were led by Mrs. Bill Hollingsworth and Mrs. Anna Gilford. Reports were given by Mrs. Gene Ledford, secretary.

The Tally-Ho Club of Waynesville High is sponsoring a Soc Hop. This is the last home game of the season and everyone is invited to attend the gala event.

In 1953 there were three brands of nylon passenger car tires available to the public, but a year later there were 27 brands, and the number today has increased to 86.

About 150,000 U. S. children are born out of wedlock each year.

This job of being President may be hard on the health, but you would never guess it to see an ex-holder of this position when he comes to New York. Meaning, of course, Harry S. Truman, who just finished a visit here. The reporters almost hate to see him come, for it means they must crawl out of bed in time to accompany him on his 7 a.m. walk from the Waldorf. By now, he is a familiar sight, just as he was in Washington, a rather small, white-haired man as erect as the doughboy he was in World War I, striding along Park Avenue, with half-asleep newsmen panting at his heels. If he keeps up this strenuous pace many more years, he may go down in history as "Lightfoot Harry Truman".

erson, I went on a boat-ride to Newark along with officials of the Celanese Corporation of America to see the modern, push-button terminal of the company which houses three millions of gallons of 50 different chemicals shipped up from Texas, ranging from acetone to alcohol. Here a customer can buy a spoonful or a carload. The trip was scenic and enjoyable, and anyone who visits New York City should, if possible, take time to make the boat trip around Manhattan. Warehouses, terminals, tugboats, liners and countless seagulls thrown in, point up just a few of the reminders that here is the greatest harbor in the world.

On October 15th, the 15th book of Harnett Kane was published, and again he pays tribute to the ladies—that is, if you can call spies ladies. This one is entitled, "The Smiling Rebel," (Doubleday) and is about Belle Boyd, most celebrated spy of the Civil War. Harnett tells me "she was as meek and mild a miss as ever sold a regiment down the river." In my opinion, Harnett Kane is the most dynamic author we have today, for as soon as a book of his is published, he tears off on a speaking and autographing tour which reaches from his New Orleans to Seattle — and he helps sell the volumes too, something unusual for authors. What's more, he can speak — something else unusual for authors.

So many bulletins have been issued on the state of Ike's health, that a story has sprung up locally about a preacher named Butterfield who became ill, and each morning a notice was attached to the church bulletin board saying "Butterfield is improved" or "Butterfield is gaining" etc. This system worked well until one day, the guest speaker's subject was announced on the board as "God is Good". Right under it was a notice,

"Butterfield is better."
He was a Korean war veteran driving an old car. It was so rambunctious that it collapsed near Grand Central Station, and was towed away for junk. The vet told police he had no money to ride the train, so they introduced him to the Travellers Aid which loaned him $15. "We bought his ticket," a worker reported. "His papers showed that he had left an army hospital so that he could die at home."

David Sarnoff was present at a luncheon meeting of sales and advertising executives here, and received an award for his career of 50 years in the electronics industry, with emphasis on his outstanding salesmanship and public service. Sarnoff had previously asked that he be permitted to make no speech. But being human like a lot of us, when the award was made, he arose with tears in his eyes and said the next ten years would be our greatest; that his company is doing a billion dollars of business a year, 81 per cent of which is in products and services which did not exist ten years ago.

Gotham Gathering: a Pennsylvania Railroad official told his road was vexed because officials of other and smaller roads ride the Pennsylvania Washington—on passes—to get some of the railroad's business away from it. . . .
