Elizabeth Watkins Is Married To C. B. Atkinson, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Daniel Watkins announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Ann Watkins, to Charles Bonner Atkinson, Jr., son of Mrs. Charles Bonner Atkinson of Waynesville and the late Mr. Atkinson.

The ceremony was performed September 10 in Greenville, S. C.

The bride attended the Waynesville High School and Peace Junior College. She is at present a student at Blanton's Business College, Asheville and expects to enter Western Carolina at the winter quarter.

Mr. Atkinson was recently discharged after serving three years with the Seabees. He is a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School and is now attending Western Carolina College.

The couple will make their home at Cullowhee after January 1.

Mrs. Rowe Henry Is Speaker At Canton Club

Mrs. Rowe Henry was the guest speaker at the November meeting of the Canton Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon in the club room of the Champion Y.M.C.A.

Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey, Jr., program chairman, introduced the speaker whose subject was "Thanksgiving—Unseen and Intangible". Mrs. Henry reminded the group that we should be thankful every day, not just during the harvest season. She stated that things unseen are often of more value than things we actually see. For instance, a home can be of far greater value than a house.

Mrs. Walter P. Dixon read a poem "He Thanks Best" by Grace N. Crowell. Mrs. Thomas P. Rice sang "Thanks Be To God," accompanied by Mrs. R. D. Coleman, Jr. Members and visitors repeated "A Thanksgiving Prayer," and roll call was answered with Thanksgiving quotations and original thoughts.

During the business hour Mrs. Maurice Brooks, chairman of International Affairs Dept., reported on the "Trick or Treat" program.

Mrs. Paul Hyatt, chairman of Community Affairs Dept., discussed the clothes closet project of the club.

Mrs. H. A. Helder, chairman of Fine Arts Dept., told of plans for the December meeting.

The certificate of honor, received from the district president, Mrs. Kelly Bennett of Bryson City, was presented to the club by the president, Mrs. Noah Swofford.

A social hour followed. The tea table was centered with a harvest arrangement of fruits and vegetables. Visitors were Mrs. C. B. Medford of Canton, and Mrs. Koolman of Michigan, Mrs. O. F. Gillis was introduced as a new member.

Hostesses were Mrs. Willis Kirkpatrick, Mrs. W. N. Freely, Mrs. G. M. Trostel, Mrs. E. C. Horton, Mrs. R. G. Limer, and Mrs. Herman Eskridge.

A program on Conservation will be presented by Mrs. Herbert Singletary.

Prize-Winning Home Clubs Are Announced

Three Haywood home demonstration clubs, judged the most outstanding in the past year, and one club, showing the best scrapbook, were awarded cash prizes during the Tobacco Festival program Tuesday night.

The most outstanding groups were the Canton Homemakers, the West Canton Club, and the Beaverdam Club. The Happy Homemakers won the prize for the best scrapbook.

The clubs were judged on a basis of participation of officers and individual club members in county, district and state events; project leader activities; leader workshops and demonstrations within their own and other clubs; and the number of reading certificates earned. Points were given for accomplishments throughout the year.

The Canton Homemakers, with Mrs. Walter Cowart, Jr., as president, had 1765 points; West Canton, with Mrs. Hugh Early as president, had 1635 points; and Beaverdam, with Mrs. George Frady as president, had 1530 points.

The winning scrapbook had a tooled aluminum cover and told the story of the Happy Homemakers for the past year. Mrs. Edward Pless, historian, prepared the book. Mrs. Halmund Cook is club president.

The Cornwell Club, of which Mrs. Steve Plemmons is president, won second place in the scrapbook exhibit with a book of cloth pages, made by Mrs. Phillip Chase, historian.

Third place went to the Ratcliffe Cove Club for a book with needlepoint cover made by Mrs. Will Ratcliffe. Mrs. Edwin Russell is president.

The prizes were presented by Miss Mary Cornwell, home demonstration agent.

Woman's Club To Meet Thursday Afternoon

A regular meeting of the Waynesville Woman's Club will be held Thursday, November 17, at 3 p.m. in the dining room of the First Methodist Church.

The program will be presented by the American Home Department, of which Mrs. M. G. Stamey is chairman.

Hostesses will be Mrs. W. S. Roberts, Miss Margaret Johnston, Mrs. Charles Plemmons, and Miss Ann Albright.
