Watts Back In Jail; Charged With Forgery

Gene Watts, alias Biggerstaff, 29, of Canton, is back in jail, after being out just a short time. Watts is now charged with forging two checks on his employer, Buck Plemmons, according to Sheriff Fred Campbell.

One check was for $40 and the other for $50.

Watts was out on a $1,000 bond charged with taking three guns from a Hyder Mountain home several weeks ago.

Soon after being put in jail on the forgery charge, Watts implicated a Buncombe man as being an accomplice in the gun case.

Sheriff Campbell went to Buncombe and brought the man named by Watts back here for questioning. The man denied any knowledge of the case, and when Watts man, he too denied the was implicated.
