Governor's Proclamation
THANKSGIVING DAY
November 24, 1955

WHEREAS, it is one of the best-loved traditions of Americans that we set aside each year in November one day when we pause in our labors and return thanks for all the blessings bestowed upon us; and
WHEREAS, in 1621 Governor Bradford set aside a day of thanksgiving in order that the Pilgrims might thank Almighty Providence for a good harvest; in 1789 George Washington, the first President of the United States, received a joint resolution from both houses of congress requesting that he recommend to the people a day of public thanksgiving and prayer; and in 1863 Abraham Lincoln by proclamation invited his fellow-citizens to set aside the last Thursday in November as a day of thanksgiving and praise; and
WHEREAS, during this Thanksgiving season, many religious organizations are placing a special emphasis upon a people-to-people sharing of American abundance as a means of evidencing gratitude to God for the many blessings He has bestowed upon our Nation; and thereby demonstrating the traditional friendship and compassion of Americans for those less fortunate than ourselves; and
WHEREAS, "Now is a time of peace.
Now is a time of drawing close.
The crops garnered, the last row ploughed,
The husbander stands in the heavy sun
And watches the purple hills
Painted with the quick hand of Indian summer.
Autumn has climbed the mountains
And quilted the still hills with colors—
With Indian-corn colors.
And the great quiet hand of God
Lies on the land
And we draw close around the restless fire—
In thanksgiving.
I proclaim this a day of Thanksgiving
A day for prayer
A day to acknowledge the blessed rewards
Of a bountiful land.
A day for men to lift their eyes in thanks
And see in the white air the face of God."
THEREFORE, I, Luther H. Hodges, Governor of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 24, a legal holiday in North Carolina and request all the citizens of our State, with their families and friends, render hearty thanks to Almighty God for all His benefits on Thursday, November 24, 1955. Insofar as possible, where there are services of Thanksgiving in our churches, you are urged to attend these services as an expression of your gratitude.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina to be affixed.
DONE at the City of Raleigh this sixteenth day of November in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-five.
(THE GREAT SEAL)

Thickety CDP To Meet Thursday

The CDP meeting will be held Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in Oak Grove Baptist Church. It is urged that everyone attend and help start off the work of the new year. Officers and committee chairmen will be elected, and other business taken up.

K. O. Carswell has been a patient in St. Joseph Hospital several days where he is undergoing treatment.

The W.M.U. of Oak Grove Baptist Church held the regular meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Billy Rector, with Mrs. Dock Cannon co-hostess.

Mrs. Rector was in charge of the devotional, and the program was under the direction of Mrs. Cannon. Several members participated in the program.

Mrs. Howard Dotson, president, presided over the business meeting when plans for the Christmas activities were discussed. Mrs. Troy Ford and Mrs. Frank Ford will be hostesses for the annual Christmas party.

Mrs. Gladys Burrell and daughter, Mrs. R. L. Shuman, were hostesses for a household shower Friday evening at their home, as a courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. Loy Lee Williamson, whose wedding was announced last week. A number of relatives and friends attended, presenting the honorees with many useful gifts.

The Wesleyan Service Guild of Rockwood Church held the regular meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Ray McDowell on Queenstown Road.

Mrs. Charles Jacobs Jr. presided, and Mrs. Robert Hibbs was in charge of the program. The devo-

Two Get Checks After Mix-Up At Golden Harvest

"A bit of confusion, and a technicality proved to be a source of embarrassment at the Golden Harvest weekly event Tuesday." Ned Tucker, speaking in behalf of the Merchants Association said this morning.

"The name selected to receive first place was that of Earl Crawford, and through error, the judges ruled him ineligible, because they surmised he was part-owner of Crawford Gulf Service. It so happens that Mr. Crawford, several weeks ago, became manager of Crawford Memorial Park, and is not now connected with the Service Station," Tucker added.

Tucker explained that, in behalf of the judges, and to Ernest Crawford, owner of the station, that an apology was extended. Owners and members of participating firms are not eligible to participate in the event, but in the case of Earl Crawford, he was an eligible participant.

"The judges," Tucker said, "then selected the name of Robert Fowler, for first place winner. Neither Crawford or Fowler were in attendance at the event, but a decision was made to send both a check for $5," Tucker explained. "Had either one been present, the amount would have been $172.52," he cited.

tional was conducted by Miss Melba Willis, the Spiritual Life chairman.

During the business Christmas projects were discussed including the sponsorship of a girl at the Children's Home. It was voted to bring a special gift of money to the Christmas meeting, which will be given a family where there is sickness. Members will also bring inexpensive gifts to be exchanged.

The December meeting and Christmas party will be at the home of Misses Lura and Wessie Wright.

Mrs. Joe Bob Carswell and daughter, Pamela, left last week for California where they will be with her mother until after Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Wilson and daughter, Elaine, and Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Haney visited their sister, Mrs. J. L. Tabor and family, in Harriman, Tenn., last week.

Mrs. Cordelia Clark observed her 92nd birthday Monday at her home on Crabtree Road. She received many tokens of remembrance, together with visits by relatives and friends over the weekend.

Mrs. Clark, youngest daughter of the late Joseph P. and Eliza Robinson Ford is the last surviving member of that family. She is a native of this section where she has spent her entire life. Her husband, Calvin R. Clark, a veteran of the Civil War, died several years ago. She has two sons living, T. A. Clark of Canton, and Alton Clark with whom she makes her home. She has seven grandchildren, and twelve great grandchildren.

Since a fall more than a year ago in which she sustained a broken hip, Mrs. Clark has been confined to her room but she is still alert and keeps up with the happenings of the community, and current news.

Mrs. Gaston Rhinehart and Mrs. George Wright visited their sister, Mrs. Hazel Pressley.

South Clyde CDP Will Meet Monday Night

By MRS. KYLE LINDSEY
Community Reporter
The South Clyde CDP will meet at the Community Center, Monday night at 7 o'clock. Chairman Edwin Jackson will be in charge.

The Clyde PTA held a regular meeting Thursday night in the school auditorium with Mrs. Carl Gillis presiding. Mrs. Edd Brooks was in charge of the program and the Rev. V. N. Allen, pastor of Louisa Chapel Church, conducted a Thanksgiving devotion.

Rebecca Chapman played a piano solo, Nelda Cashion sang "Thanks Be To God," and Peggy Free and Amelia Robinson gave readings. Mrs. Soesbee spoke on Book Week and the importance of reading for children.

Mrs. Freeman's and Mrs. Matthews' rooms, tied for first place in the elementary grades for most parents present and Mrs. Howell's room won in the high school. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Louisa Chapel held an all-day meeting last week in the home of Mrs. Kyle Lindsey.

The program on "Women and the Church," was presented in the form of a play. Mrs. V. N. Allen conducted the devotions. Plans were made to raise money to pay for new parsonage furniture.
