Clothing Drive For Needy Children Set November 29

The drive for children's clothing to be made by the Waynesville lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose will be next Tuesday night, November 29, instead of this Tuesday as was reported last week.

The Moose members will start at 7 p.m. and make calls at all homes where porch lights are left burning. Persons who are missed can have clothing picked up by calling the Marcus Electric Co. in Hazelwood, Glendale 6-8610.

The drive will be made to benefit the Waynesville Clothing Closet whose stock of children's clothing has been depleted for several weeks.

Because of the present cold weather, the need for clothing for underprivileged children is "desperate," according to Mrs. Roger Walker, president of the Clothing Closet.

Especially needed, she said, are
