Sorority To Aid In Opening Of Service Station

Members of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority, Xi Omicron chapter, will serve as hostesses at the opening of the Burnette 66 Service Station Friday and Saturday. The new station is on Highway 19A-23, near the hospital.

Miss Edna Summerrow, president of the sorority, said the organization would share in the gross sales for the two days, and the money would be used in the scholarship fund which is given to some WTHS senior girl each May.

Mrs. Bill Dover, member of the committee, said there would be a member of the sorority at the station throughout the two days giving out the gifts which are being offered by the station for the two opening days.

The station is being operated by Ullus Burnette, who said there would be several clowns in attendance for the two days. One clown is slated to perform the first day

Youthful Editor

HYDEN, Ky. (AP)—Denzil Allen, 16, is editor of Kentucky's youngest full-scale weekly newspaper. He still wears braces on his teeth, but he had completed a year of college when he joined the paper, The Leslie County News, which began publishing in May.

He puts out a six-page edition each Thursday and is part-owner of the paper.

At college, he assisted Dr. Leonard Roberts in collecting mountain folklore for his book, "South From Hell Fer Sartin," and reported for the college newspaper.

By taking Saturday classes and correspondence courses, he plans to get a degree.

and two the second.

Robert Allison, of Allison & Duncan Oil Company, said that tentative plans are to begin construction at an early date of another station similar to the Burnette Station in the immediate Waynesville area.

At 68, William Henry Harrison was the oldest U.S. President.

A 200-pound buck was brought down Monday in Sherwood Forest, 3 1/2 miles from the West Fork checking station, Charlie Rogers, left, of Waynesville and Hub Parker, Canton, Route 3, are shown.

Parker killed the deer with one shot from his high-powered rifle. The kill was made about 8:30 a.m.

Indian Scare Story

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—Susannah Alexander awoke grabbed a gun and killed a man pursuing her husband, John, around the room with a hatchet. Then the Alexanders wrapped the victim in his horsehide robe and buried him on a hillside.

The victim was Long Tom, Orinoco Indian chief. John Alexander er was a founder of this early American city—and wouldn't have been except for Susannah's sudden awakening.

Mention was made of the historical incident at ceremonies in the cemetery of old Pohick Church where John and Susannah—as well as Long Tom—lie buried.
