

Garden Club Plans Holiday Decoration Sale

A luncheon meeting of the Mountain View Garden Club was held Thursday with Mrs. David Hyatt, Mrs. Simon Klosky, and Mrs. Joe Cathey as hostess in the home of Mrs. Hyatt.

Mrs. J. E. Fender presented a program on Christmas Decorations. She demonstrated the use of mobiles, card trees, and candles.

Mrs. Hyatt presided during the business hour at which time plans were completed for a sale of Christmas greens and decorations to be held December 17, at the Liner Real Estate office.

Mrs. Gordon Cagle was appointed to arrange the shadow box at the East Waynesville school for this month and Mrs. Bill Norris was appointed to arrange the box at Central Elementary. The shadow boxes are a project of the club and are changed each month in keeping with the season.

A welcome was extended Mrs. Phil Medford, who returned to the club after a two year's absence during which she made her home at Parris Island, S. C.

Guests included Mrs. A. A. Pearson of Fletcher, director of District One of the State Garden Club, Mrs. Dwight Beaty, and Mrs. Boyd Owen.

Gifts were exchanged at the conclusion of the meeting.

MRS. ROLF KAUFMAN is the former Miss Libby Topaz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Topaz of Baltimore, Md. She was married November 13.

Kaufman-Topaz Wedding Is Held In Baltimore

Miss Libby Topaz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Topaz of Baltimore, Maryland, became the bride of Lieutenant Rolf Kaufman, of the Army Chemical Center, Maryland, on Sunday, November 13, at 1 p.m. at Marling House, Baltimore.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Kaufman of Waynesville.

The ceremony was performed by Cantor Harry Cooper, Har Sinai Congregation, Baltimore.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin, designed with fitted bodice and portrait neckline. The bouffant skirt was scalloped at the hemline and she wore a fingertip veil of illusion attached to a half-bonnet of illusion. She carried a white orchid on a Bible.

Mrs. Norma Moritz of Baltimore, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore an ankle-length dress of champagne silk with matching short veil and carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Florine Rudick of Baltimore. Her dress was of pink silk and she carried a bouquet of rust and yellow roses.

Mr. Kaufman served as best man for his son.

A reception was held following the ceremony after which the couple left for a wedding trip to Canada. For traveling the bride wore a gray worsted suit with black accessories and the orchid from her Bible.

Mrs. Topaz, mother of the bride, wore pink lace with matching accessories and her corsage was a lavender orchid. The mother of the bridegroom wore royal blue lace with matching accessories and her corsage was also a lavender orchid.

Lt. Kaufman is serving with the Medical Service Corps, Army Chemical Center. The couple will make their home in Edgewood, Maryland.
