J. G. Holtzclaw
 Dies In Virginia
 Of Heart Attack

Jack Gilbert Holtzclaw, 69, father of Mrs. Aaron Prevost, died Tuesday in Richmond, Va., of a heart attack.

He was president of the Virginia Electric and Power Co. and played an important role in the development of Virginia's electric system for 26 years.

His office said Holtzclaw did not feel well when he returned from a company director's meeting in New York last week.

Holtzclaw became president of VEPCO in 1929. Under his direction the firm assumed a leading part in the development of Virginia's rural electrification network. Two multimillion-dollar hydroelectric plants were constructed on the Roanoke River near the Virginia-North Carolina border.

A native of Perry, Ga., Holtzclaw was graduated from Georgia Tech. He worked as a student engineer with a Boston firm after graduation and early in 1908 was sent to Savannah, Ga., with the Savannah Electric Co.

In January, 1911, he was transferred to the Pensacola Electric Co. At Pensacola, Fla., where he became assistant superintendent of transportation.

In 1916 Holtzclaw became superintendent of the Pensacola firm. Three years later he was made manager. In 1924 he transferred to Beaumont, Tex., as vice president of the Gulf States Utilities Co. He remained there until 1929, when he was elected VEPCO president.

The firm serves a large area of eastern, central and southern Virginia and eastern North Carolina.

Funeral services were held in Richmond today.

Surviving, in addition to Mrs.

Toy Services
 Are Set For Friday At 2:30

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2:30 p.m. in the Maple Grove Methodist Church for James Elmore Toy, 62, of Waynesville, who died Wednesday of a bullet wound.

The Rev. Grady Barringer, pastor of the church, will officiate and burial will be in Green Hill Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be members of the American Legion Post No. 47.

The body will remain at Garrett Funeral Home until thirty minutes prior to the service when it will be taken to the church.

Toy was found dead in the basement of his home about 12:45 p.m. Wednesday. Dr. J. Frank Pate, county coroner, who investigated, with Sheriff's deputies Everett McElroy and Gene Howell, said that no inquest would be held. He said that Toy died instantly when struck through the heart with a self-inflicted rifle bullet.

Dr. Pate said Toy had been in ill health for some time and had become despondent.

A native of Middlesboro, Kentucky, Toy had spent most of his life in Haywood County. He was a veteran of World War II.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Fay Henry Toy; two sons, James Henry Toy of Atlanta, Ga., and Marine Sgt. William Van Toy of Quantico, Va.; the father, Van Toy of Waynesville, Route 2; and two grandsons.

Veteran To Be Honored Sunday
 At Oak Grove

The regular third Sunday singing convention will be held at the Oak Grove Baptist Church Sunday, beginning at 2 p.m. Rev. T. C. Heatherly, chairman, will preside.

This is to be a home-coming event, to honor Cecil Young, a resident of the community who has been with the Armed Forces in Germany, and who is expected to be home by that time.

A number of visiting singers are expected to take part on the program, including the Dixieland Quartet, the Roberts Family and Talley Brothers. All singers are asked to come and take part, and the general public is invited.

After the program, officers for the coming year will be elected.

Cancer Clinic To Be
