Sunday School Lesson

Jesus Teaches Confidence in God
FEAR NOT, TRUST IN THE FATHER TO SUPPLY YOUR NEEDS

Scripture—Luke 12:4-53.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
CONFIDENCE in God is what Jesus teaches us in this lesson. If we keep His teaching in mind, not just when we are studying the lesson, but in all our activities during our lives, we could get rid of the fears and anxieties that haunt us, and live in full confidence that we will receive help when we need it.

Every little children have their fears and anxieties. If they can talk them over with their mothers and the mothers have memorized our Lord's teachings, they can turn the youngsters to God and lessen or do away with their fears. And they can show their little ones in their own lives how to cultivate this confidence in their Maker.

Jesus had been speaking with great severity about hypocrisy. Now he turns to the subject of fear. In our day, in spite of the fact that the majority of people in our nation are earning more money than ever before, and own more of the comforts of life, they are filled with anxieties that have never been known before. They fear that war may break forth in uneasy parts of the world; they fear the atom bomb buys comforts for the home, education for the children, etc., but what if a home is unhappy with friction? How about family and friends who love us, and are willing to sacrifice for us and that we can love and sacrifice for?

What makes life truly happy is the help we can be to those who need it, the love we can give to those around us whether we have money or not. The uprightness of our lives. These are the things which make us "rich toward God."

"Therefore I say unto you, take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on. The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment."

"Consider the ravens; for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them; how much are ye better than the fowls?"

A raven is one of loneliest birds known; it indeed has no storehouse of food, is usually alone and sits forlornly on the mountain cliff uttering its doleful croak.

"And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit? . . . Consider the lilies how they grow; they toil not, they

MEMORY VERSE
"And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after; and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you."—Luke 12:29-31.

and what it might do to the world if in the hands of unscrupulous people or nations. Even with all this, we can cultivate trust in the good God whose world it is, and learn to be serene.

Jesus is asked by one man in the vast multitude that surrounded Him, if He would speak to the man's brother that an inheritance be divided. This man had doubtless been listening only with his ears to the Lord's teaching, but his mind was concerned with earthly things—money that he might lay his hands on.

Jesus said, "Take heed of covetousness, for a man's life, consisteth not in the abundance of the things that he possesseth."

Then the Lord told a parable about a man who had taken such plentiful harvests that his barns were overflowing. He thought what he should do, and decided to tear down his old barns and build larger ones, then to sit back and enjoy life. That night God required his life, "then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?"

"So is he that layeth up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God," Jesus said. It is always a surprise to me to notice what store many people set by money. True, money spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

"If then God so clothe the grass, which is today in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will He clothe you, O ye of little faith?"

"But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom."

"Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth."

The faithful servant, he who works diligently for his master, even when that master is absent; not he that takes advantage of the absence to do as he pleases and abuses his trust, is the one who wins rewards, said Jesus. "For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required; and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more."

So, while we are on earth, we too must be faithful servants, trusting God to bring us through, and working diligently as Jesus teaches, until He come again.

NOT BY ACCIDENT

A baby doesn't "just happen." He is created through a slow and intricate process designed by God. Neither does a delinquent "just happen." He, too, is created—gradually—by little wrongs and big, all human-caused.

Insecurity, improper associates or environment and lack of love often push a child into developing criminal tendencies.

Neglect, lack of guidance, lack of education and religious training will cause him to weaken and become sick morally and spiritually.

Responsible mothers and fathers will endeavor to protect their children from these evils. They will love a child. They will supervise his activities, and see that he has adequate religious education.

They will see that he goes regularly to Sunday School and Church, and they'll go along with him.

As a responsible parent, be sure that you create a Christian—not a criminal.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
