Jesus Teaches Gratitude

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Luke 17:1-19.

If a man wronged another and repented, he should be forgiven, said Jesus. Even if he offended seven times in a day and repented each time, he should be forgiven.

If a man had a servant working in the field and feeding cattle, would the master thank the man for serving him a meal instead of first eating his own? asked Jesus Christ.

Entering a certain village, Jesus saw ten men afflicted with leprosy some distance away. They begged Him to help them. He healed them, then sent them to the priests.

One of the ten lepers returned to Christ, fell on his face, giving Him thanks. Where are the other nine? asked Jesus.

MEMORY VERSE—Psalm 92:1.
