

Eugenia Crow Is Bride Of Robert B. Colkitt

Miss Eugenia M. Crow, daughter of Mrs. John Dodson Crow, Sr. of Chattanooga, Tenn., became the bride of Robert B. Colkitt, also of Chattanooga, Friday, May 4, at 10:30 a. m. in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Chattanooga.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben E. Colkitt, Sr., of Waynesville.

The vows were pronounced by the Rev. John H. Bonner, Jr., pastor of the church, and a program of organ music was presented by Thomas Alexander.

The altar was decorated with vases of white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her brother, Frank L. Crow of Chicago, the bride wore a suit of periwinkle blue silk shantung with navy accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped with Eucharist lilies showered with lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Harvey Clark, Jr. of Murfreesboro, Tenn., was matron of honor. She wore a beige dress and hat with navy accessories and carried a hand bouquet of yellow roses.

Lt. Comdr. Ben E. Colkitt, Jr. of Jacksonville, Fla., served as best man for his brother.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was given in the home of Mrs. H. E. Fansler. Mrs. Douglas Beville of Chattanooga assisted.

Mrs. Crow, mother of the bride, wore a sheer navy dress with navy and white accessories and her corsage was of white orchids. Mrs. Colkitt, mother of the bridegroom, wore a silk print with pale green accessories and her corsage was also of white orchids.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will be at home at Apartment 48, 30 South Germantown Road, Chattanooga.

Mrs. Colkitt was graduated from
