Essay Contest Winners Are Announced

Winners have been announced for the essay contest which has been held in the Waynesville elementary schools in connection with the Clean-Up Campaign, sponsored by the Waynesville Council of Garden Clubs with the Chamber of Commerce.

Two prizes were awarded in each school. First prize was a $10 Savings Account at the First National Bank and second prize was a fountain pen donated by the Waynesville Book Store.

The winners and their schools were as follows:

Pigeon Street, James Gibbs, first; Gloria Love, second.

St. John's, William Sanderson, first; Lynn Kilpatrick, second.

Central, Danny Boyd, first; Bobby Buckner, second.

East Waynesville, Julia Reynolds, first; Pat Reed second.

Honorable mention went to Joe Cathey and Mary Otis Burgin of Central Elementary and Penny Crawford and Jeanette Melton of East Waynesville.

Miss Millie Smith, who was graduated from Peace Junior College in Raleigh this week, is here to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. David Hyatt, and Mr. Hyatt. She will assist Mr. Hyatt in his office at Hyatt Plumbing Co. Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt attended the commencement program at Peace and drove Miss Smith back to Waynesville.

Mrs. Frank Potter of Long Island, New York is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Feichter at The Lodge.

Haywood Girl Will Make London Trip

RUBY PRESNELL Corps Cadet Ruby Presnell of the Max Patch Mountain Mission has been chosen as a delegate to attend the Salvation Army International Corps Cadet Congress in London, England, July 19-August 1, according to Major Cecil Brown, head of the mission.

It is expected that 1,000 selected young people from all over the world will attend the conference—including 50 from the U. S. The American delegation will fly to the meeting from New York.

Miss Presnell, who is 16 years old, lives in the Salvation Army home at Max Patch and attends Fines Creek High School, where she is in the 10th grade.

Miss Presnell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Presnell of Max Patch, has finished four years of her six years' Bible study given by the Salvation Army and is a member of the Corps Cadet Honor Club.

Annual Workshop At Camp Schaub Is Underway

The seventh annual Handicraft Workshop for home demonstration clubs of the Western District opened Tuesday at Camp Schaub and will continue through today. This is the only workshop of its kind held in the South.

Instruction is being given on aluminum chasing and embossing, basketry, card weaving, copper enameling, hammered copper, tooled copper, drawn work, fabric painting, plastic covered coat hangers, braided rugs, silk screening, spatter painting, torn paper craft, and wood carving.

Delegates from most of the home demonstration clubs in the district have attended the workshop and received instruction to take back to their respective clubs.

Among the Haywood women who have served as instructors are Mrs. Bert Cagle of Canton, Mrs. Jim Singleton of Route 2, Waynesville; Mrs. James Hyatt, and Mrs. Hugh Early, Canton; Miss Jean Childers and Miss Mary Cornwell, Waynesville.

The Western District is comprised of Avery, Buncombe, Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Macon, Madison, Mitchell, Swain Transylvania, Watauga, Yancey, and Jackson counties.

Mrs. Herman Ahrens arrived Tuesday morning from Germany to visit her daughter, Mrs. Wade Golden, and Mr. Golden. She expects to spend about six months here. This is the first time Mrs. Ahrens and her daughter have been together since December, 1948 when Mrs. Golden came to this country with her husband.

Summer Selection

By VERA WINSTON

BLACK and white checked cotton is the fabric for a daytime dress that would be an excellent choice for the business girl. It has little touches of white pique, used for the stand-up collar and at the cuffs. The set-in contour belt continues down the center front embellished by a parade of buttons. The dress fastens in back and has a skirt that is generously flared and that comes with its own stiffened petticoat. Good right until early fall which means plenty of service for this attractive model.

Farm - Home Week Event Set At Raleigh June 4-7

Subjects of interest to Western Carolinians are:

Tuesday, June 5—principles of landscape gardening, soil fertility, the economics of agriculture (morning), nature and control of soil-borne disease (afternoon), 8:30-12, and 1:30-4:30. At 7:30 p.m. that day, P. D. Sanders, editor of "Southern Planter," will speak on "Meeting the Income Challenge".

Wednesday, June 6 — forage crops, principles of pruning plants, feeding beef cattle, 8:30-12:00 and 1:30-4:30. At 7:30 p.m. a program of recreation and a square dance will be held.

Thursday, June 7 — feeding swine, efficiency in commercial broiler, egg, and turkey enterprises; soil moisture problems, recent findings in research work in entomology, 8:30-12:00 and 1:30-4:30. Haywood County families who wish to attend the Farm and Home Week program are asked to contact the county agent's office for transportation and accommodations.

Prayer For Mayor

ARTESIA, N. M. (AP)—It's not that Mayor William Yeager has suddenly decided all his constituents are direly in the need of salvation.

It's just that he has moved and has a new telephone number.

The old number, the one still listed on the directory, is that of a new "Dial-a-Prayer" system recently installed here.

Calling that number now gets the caller a one-minute prayer instead of Mayor Yeager.
