

Back After Kidnap

MRS. EVELYN Johnson, 18, is reunited with her husband, an Air Force sergeant, in Orlando, Fla., after telling police she was kidnaped at knife-point while hanging up clothes. Authorities are holding Frazier Peterson, 25, in connection with the abduction. He was released from Massachusetts State Prison last March after serving 13 years for beating and criminally attacking two girls. (International Soundphoto)

Hazelwood Baptist Names June As Bond Sales Month

June has been designated bond selling month by the Hazelwood Baptist Church in its current drive to raise $150,000 for building of a new church. Members of the church, headed by Jerry Rogers, general chairman of the building committee; Charlie Palmer, chairman of the memorial committee; Fred H. Moody, treasurer of the construction bond issue; and Talmadge Woodard, chairman of the board of deacons, will attempt to add substantially to the $26,000 in bonds already sold.

Construction of the church began this spring, and it is expected that the foundations will be poured within the next week or two, according to the pastor, the Rev. John Ivan Kizer.

Mr. Kizer said that total gifts to the building fund during the three years of its existence amounted to $42,438.20. During the same period the general fund was increased by $42,173.57. He pointed out that the grand total of money raised by the church membership in three years came to $111,211.77.

At the same time, Mr. Kizer said, church membership has increased by 165 persons, for a total of 503 members. Since the inception of the building program, he said, attendance has been at an all-time high. Church growth has broken all records and contributions have tripled.

John Blalock, a deacon of the church and a member of the building committee, is the builder of the new edifice. Architect is Henry Foy.

GLASSWARE AND CHINA — Glasses are placed to the right of each place setting and directly above the knives. Individual salts and peppers should be placed above the plate or between two settings—the same goes to ash trays if they are used. Place the salad plate to the left of forks and one inch in from table edge. If bread and butter plates are used, place them just above the forks.

SHEEREST HOSIERY — New hose recommended for bride-wear is said to be the world's sheerest, a 90 gauge, 7 1/2 denier stocking, imported from Germany. The hosiery is packaged two to a box and is not inexpensive.

Woodrow Geier, Methodist Board of Education, Nashville.

ASC Lists Requirements Of Lamb-Sale Documents

Considerable difficulty was experienced last year by ASC office personnel in handling sales documents for lamb payments, according to A. W. Ferguson, ASC office manager.

In many cases, sales documents brought to the ASC office did not have sufficient information required for lamb payments, Mr. Ferguson pointed out. To correct this situation, the ASC manager has written the following letter to county sheep producers:

Under the 1956 Wool Payment Program beginning with marketing April 1, certification that the lambs have been purchased for slaughter will no longer be required. However, producers will still be required to submit accounts or bills of sale for lambs sold in support of their applications for payment. Payments will be made only on lambs that have never been shorn. In accordance with the statement to be published in the Federal Register, the regulations provide that each sales document supporting the application must show the following:

- A. Name and address of seller. B. Date of sale. The date of sales document will be presumed to be date of sale; except that, if the information available to the ASC County Office points to a different conclusion, the ASC County Office will require sufficient additional information to determine the date of sale. A sale shall be deemed to have taken place on the date title passes to the buyer. C. Number of unshorn lambs sold. If the sales document does not clearly identify the animals as lambs that had never been shorn at the time of sale, the person issuing the sales document should add a statement to that effect. Likewise, if the document is issued in connection with the sale of un-

Social Security Agent Here On Alternate Mondays

Social Security representatives from Asheville are at the Haywood County courthouse the second and fourth Monday of each month, it has been announced. The field agent is in the commissioners' room, starting about 10:30 a.m. or a little later, until about 4 p.m.

The local representative for the Veterans Administration, Col. J. H. Howell, is in his office on the third floor of the courthouse (in the same room occupied by the Draft Board) every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

shorn lambs but also covers the sale of other animals, the person issuing the sales document shall clearly indicate therein in some manner the number and the live-weight of unshorn lambs included in the sale.

D. Liveweight of unshorn lambs sold. If the weight is not determined by scales, this weight can be an estimated weight agreed to by the buyer and seller. Such weight is necessary in all cases, including cases where small lambs are sold by the side of the mother ewes.

E. Name and address of purchaser or marketing agency issuing the sales document. If this information does not appear in the printed bill head, it must be shown in some other place on the sales document.

F. Signature. The sales document must contain a handwritten signature by or on behalf of the person or firm issuing the sales document. Acceptable signatures will consist of at least one initial or name by which the person is generally known followed by his last name in full. A carbon impression or facsimile of a handwritten signature is not acceptable.

The originally-signed copy of the sales document is required for filing with the producer's application. Consequently, marketing agencies, dealers, and other buyers may wish to issue sales documents in duplicate in order for the producer to have a copy to retain in his own record.

Some Currier and Ives prints which sold for six cents each in the late 19th century now bring $1,000 each from collectors.

Denies Nazi Pay

HAMILTON FISH JR. (above), former Republican Representative from New York, has denied receiving any money from German sources for a keep-out-of-war newspaper advertisement published over his signature in 1940. The ad was among a series of captured German documents released by the State Department. The papers recounted that Nazi propagandists with thousands of dollars in hand collaborated with a "well-known Republican Congressman" in trying to get the 1940 Republican National Convention to adopt an "isolationist" platform. Washington Bazaars Have Global Tinge

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — In no other town does a bazaar provide such adventures for the charity-minded shopper as in the capitol.

Where else can you buy carnation corsages sent by Mamie Eisenhower, rub elbows with ladies in saris buying American codfish cakes or have your packages wrapped by the wives of diplomats and congressmen?

This is what happened at the "Festival of Nations" bazaar and carnival put on by a group of prominent ladies for the benefit of 86-year-old St. John's Orphanage, a nondenominational residence for children from broken homes.

Foreign foods and gift items were donated by the embassies of Norway, Egypt, South Africa, Canada, Peru, Netherlands and France. From France came a beautiful green silk scarf donated by former Ambassador and Mrs. Henri Bonnet with a hand-written note from Mrs. Bonnet addressed "For the American buyer."

Mrs. Sherman Adams, wife of the presidential assistant and one of officialdom's most talented artists, contributed a painting of historic Pierce Mill, near the Adams home in Rock Creek Park here. It brought $50.

Hostess Petie Mesta, in the midst of getting ready for her four months' round-the-world trip, took time to bake six dozen brown sugar cookies for the sale. Other cookie donors were the elegant Mrs. Truxton Beale, who lives in historic Stephen Decatur House on Lafayette Square, and Mrs. Randolph Burgess, wife of the under-secretary of the treasury.

Mrs. Nathan Twining, wife of the chief of staff of the Air Force, Mrs. Mike Monroney, wife of the Democratic senator from Oklahoma and Mrs. Bourke Hickenlooper, wife of the Republican senator from Iowa, acted as salesladies.

Guests at the small dinner parties which the Russian Ambassador and Mrs. Zaroubin have been giving are talking about the red champagne served with the dessert. It resembles the pink champagne one finds in France but is more potent.

Mrs. Earl Warren, wife of the Supreme Court justice, says she's been afraid of cats since childhood, when her pet kitten leaped

Rev. Holmes Arrives At Grace Church

The Rev. George Blake Holmes, associate rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in Roanoke, Va., arrived here this week to serve as minister of Grace Episcopal Church here during June in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. James Y. Perry, Jr.

Rev. Perry and his family are at an Episcopal Church camp for the summer.

Rev. Holmes was accompanied here by his wife, Rachael, and their four children: Rosemary, 5; George Blake, 4; Jane Douglas, 3, and Rachael Brugh.

During World War II, Rev. Holmes served with the U. S. Navy. The Air Force, and was attached to the Royal Air Force of Great Britain. He saw service in both European, Atlantic, and Pacific theatres of war.

He has attended school at Norfolk Business College, William and Mary College, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Northwestern University, Seabury-Western Theological Seminary, Garrett Biblical Institute, Washington and Jefferson College, did graduate work at Duke University, and took courses at Christ Church, Oxford University, and the University of Paris.

Commenting on his impression of Waynesville, Rev. Holmes remarked: "These are very lovely mountains—surpassed only by the thoughtfulness and friendliness of the people here."

New U. S. Congresswomen Learn About Press Relations

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—Tips on how to make a hit with the press were given to new women members of Congress at a party recently by veteran newsgals who cover the Washington political front. Katie Louchheim, director of women's activities of the Democratic National Committee, called on the reporters to talk, rather than ask "the politicians to sing for their supper."

The newcomers, all Democratic members of the House, included Mrs. Iris Blitch of Georgia, Mrs. Edith Green, Oregon, Mrs. Martha Griffiths, Michigan, and Mrs. Coya Knutson, Minnesota. Democratic "old-timers" also on hand included Congresswoman Mrs. Vera Buchanan, Pennsylvania, Mrs. Edna Kelly, New York, and Mrs. Leonor Sullivan of Missouri.

Availability to the press was a suggestion made by one. "When in your office, say hello," was her advice.

"Don't make your speeches too whimsical," another suggested while still another offered: "Don't be too modest. Lord knows the men aren't. You must be several cuts above them or you wouldn't be here in the first place."

"Take good care of your constituents," a correspondent for an out-of-town paper said, "try to give them everything they want. Above all answer their mail." Other suggestions included: "For Pete's sake be there, listen, know what's going on. Don't be an in-on-Tuesday, out-on-Thursday congressman. Vote!" "Cultivate humility, a rare and admirable quality among politicians." "Keep the home folks informed about what you're doing."

"Don't avoid the Washington cocktail party," advised a society reporter. "Some Republicans have apparently considered these parties one step nearer sin and lost a lot of publicity in the process." "Just make news—introduce a bill, make a speech, get married," tossed in another.

Rep. Kelly of New York also had a word of advice for the newcomers: "Be present at your committee meetings at all times and on the floor whenever possible. As legislators, we hope we will be able to set a precedent for more and more women in Congress."

Beauty, Good Clothes Alone Do Not Insure Popularity

By RUTH CURRENT State Home Demonstration Agent

WHO'S THAT POPULAR GIRL? Not necessarily the prettiest girl at school nor the one with the most elaborate wardrobe. Usually she is the girl who genuinely likes other people, has friendly manners and a knack of making everyone around her comfortable and happy. While she may not be a cover girl, you may be sure she's always groomed to the last shining hair. She has lots of interests, likes to dance, swim, sew and cook. Maybe it's because she is a good hostess and can cook that the crowd always makes a bee line for her house.

Just between you and me, you can do what she can do if you set your mind to it!

PANCAKE TIME, ANYTIME — Pancake time is anytime, whatever the season. Everybody loves pancakes from the good old stack of wheats to the very elegant crepes suzette. Pancakes make a hearty dessert and are lots of fun for a mid-morning brunch party. You won't recognize the party pancake that turns up as the luncheon's main course. Hot off the griddle and ready for fame, serve sausage roll-ups and cinnamon apples—a wonderful mid-morning brunch idea. Roll pancakes around plump pork sausage and serve with cinnamon apples. It's a wonderful combination. See if you don't agree.

For cinnamon apples, combine 1 1/2 cups water, 1/2 cup sugar, and 1/4 cup of cinnamon candies. Bring to boil. When candies have melted, add apples. Continue cooking over low heat, turning apples frequently. Cook until apples are tender when pricked with a fork. Remove from hot liquid.

Pan fry pork sausage links. Place two cooked sausages across each pancake; roll up. Arrange on platter with cinnamon apples. Serve hot liquid from apples to pour over pancakes.

THE 10,000-TON FREIGHTER Marine Leopard, a 12-foot gash in her hull (circle), lies off Point Sur, Calif., with a Coast Guard boat alongside, after the vessel rammed the 2,400-ton lumber ship Howard Olson. The Olson was sliced in two, with three of her crew killed, one seriously injured and two missing. The crash occurred during unusually clear weather, according to weather bureau reports.
