FLORIDA VISITORS this month in the home of Judge and Mrs. Frank Smathers on the Sulphur Springs road are (from left) State Senator and Mrs. Doyle Carlton, Jr., of Wachula, and Mrs. Doyle Carlton, Sr., of Tampa. The elder Mr. Carlton, governor of Florida from 1929 until 1933, was here one week before returning to his home. The younger Mr. Carlton has spent four years in the Florida state senate and recently was reelected without opposition to that post. Mr. Carlton said he and his wife and children and his mother have enjoyed the climate and "general atmosphere" of Western North Carolina, and termed Waynesville "a fine little town with friendly people."

Riverside Church Mortgage, For New Addition, Will Be Burned In Services Sunday

Burning of the church mortgage will feature the special services of the Riverside Baptist church Sunday at 11 a.m.

Rev. Paul T. Grogan, pastor, will be in charge of the service, when the last note will be burned, representing clearance of all debt on the new addition of the church. The debt was about $18,000 and only recently the last $1,500 was paid after a special campaign.

Special recognition was paid two former pastors for their encouragement and assistance in helping with the campaign. They were Rev. Gay Chamberl and Rev. Thos. Erwin. It was the latter who helped draft plans for the eight additional classrooms, and enlarging the sanctuary.

The Woman's Missionary Union recently installed new carpet and a spinet piano.

A large attendance is expected Sunday for the special services. There were 202 at Sunday school last Sunday.

Fifteen were baptised and received into the church last Sunday. The baptismal service was held at the river near the church.

SA William Wilson of Salem, N. J., accompanied by his wife, the former Miss Clara Mae Phillips and his parents, all of High Point, were the week-end guests of Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. W. Harvey Hargrove and Mr. Hargrove and family.

Mrs. Hub S. Rogers is recuperating at her home on Inman Branch Road following recent surgery at the Haywood County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Max Burnette and daughters Jean and Karen, also Miss Peggy Willis of Canton, spent the past week in Clearwater, Fla., on vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stephenson and family have moved back to their home at Retreat from the Osborne Farm.

Woodrow Chambers is recuperating at his home from a recent operation in the Haywood County Hospital.

"Aunt Jane" Reece, 87, of the Little East Fork section, is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mae Inman. She suffered a stroke last week.

The Training Union of the Riverside Baptist Church of the Hazelwood Baptist Church for the quarterly meeting by sixteen members. Total attendance was 261.

Rev. Sam O'Neill, pastor of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church of Rutherfordton was the guest speaker. His church won the "Rural Church of the Year in N. C." the past 2 years. Mrs. O'Neill was also present.

Mrs. Ed Howell and daughter, Zelma Jo, spent the past week at their home in English returning on Saturday.

Miss Laura Lou Burnette, a nurse, on the staff at Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis F. Burnette.

Miss Barbara Jean Burnett and Mrs. Betty Trull, of Canton, spent the past week on vacation at Myrtle Beach.

A Vacation Bible School was recently held at the Riverside Baptist Church with an average attendance of 73. A commencement program was given the following Sunday evening. Superintendent was Lewis Sorrells, pianist, Mrs. Frank Sorrells, Sr.

Will Patterson of Hendersonville was a recent visitor of his cousin Mrs. Loner Chambers and Mr. Chambers.

Ed Howell received a message Sunday morning of the serious illness of an uncle in Belk Mountain Sanatorium. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter to visit him.

The Cecil Home Demonstration Club met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Roy Edwards as hostess. Mrs. J. E. Burnett gave a report on Farm and Home Week held in Raleigh this month.

Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent, gave the demonstration.

Rev. Paul Grogan has accepted the pastorate of the Dellwood Baptist Church as of July 1st.

WILLIAM L. SMITH of Charlotte has announced his candidacy for National Committeeman of the Young Democratic Clubs of North Carolina. Mr. Smith, a member of the Mecklenburg Y.D.C. has been active in Democratic affairs in Mecklenburg County and throughout the state of North Carolina for some years.

Carver To Head Farm Bureau's Enrollment Drive

Farm Bureau leaders in Haywood County met Tuesday night at the Junaluska Wayside Restaurant for a dinner meeting at which time plans were initiated for the membership campaign to be held later this summer.

John R. Carver, civic and political leader in the county, has been named the chairman of the membership drive. The quota for the county is 330 members.

Mrs. D. J. Boyd was named temporary chairman of the Farm Bureau women's organization which will be perfected within a few weeks. Mrs. Boyd is a teacher in the county school system.

Tom Kirkpatrick, formerly of Haywood County but now a resident of Candler, who recently joined the staff of the North Carolina Farm Bureau Mutual Insurance Company as district supervisor, told the group that "farmers are a good insurance risk as they spend less time on the highways than people in many other professions, and they are usually on the farm busy with chores at the time of day when most accidents happen."

Kendrick Caldwell, district insurance adjuster for the Farm Bureau Mutual Insurance Co., reported on the manner and speed with which accident claims are handled.

O. L. Yates, field representative for the North Carolina Farm Bureau, cited the repeal of the federal tax on farm-used gasoline as one of the accomplishments of the Farm Bureau on a national level last year.

He stated that the blanks for the use of the farmer in asking for the refund are in the county agent's office. He further stated that the North Carolina Farm Bureau is going to ask the next session of the General Assembly for a 7-cent refund on farm-used gasoline instead and sons, Barry and Bruce, of Washington, D. C. are the guests, for two weeks, of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Beverage of Bethel. They are enroute to Ft. Sam Houston, Texas.
