

Philippine WSCS Leader Conducts Lecture Forum

Mrs. Emanuela Valencia, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in the Philippine Islands, will conduct a lecture forum on Methodist work in the Philippines at Lake Junaluska Thursday evening at 8 in the auditorium. This program is sponsored by the Southeastern Jurisdictional School of Missions currently in conference at the lake.

Miss Dorothy McConnell, editor of the World Outlook, will make a brief statement regarding strategy and planning of Methodist work in Southeast Asia just preceding Mrs. Valencia's lecture. Worship will be conducted by Dr. Flemin Kittrell, home economics instructor at Howard University in Washington. She will include some remarks about Burma and Thailand.

Miss Eva Shipstone, teacher of psychology at Isabella Thoburn College in Lucknow, India, will render the closing prayer. She is with the school in the capacity of resource person. She is a member of the international team that has been holding workshops on world understanding throughout the country. This is a project of the Woman's Division of Christian Service.

Hazelwood Folk Raise $1,000 On New Sanctuary

The sale of bricks for the new Hazelwood Baptist church brought more than $1,000 Sunday, according to Fred Moody, treasurer. This amount was above the regular contributions for the building fund, Moody explained. The schedule calls for pouring the foundation of the new sanctuary this week. Much of the material for the new structure is already in the site.

GOOD APPETIZER
Stuffed celery stalks, cut into short lengths, make a delicious tidbit to serve with a before-dinner beverage. For the stuffing you can use cream or cottage cheese mixed with anchovy paste or chopped green olives; or fill the celery ribs with lobster paste; or choose mashed sardines - and mayonnaise or the celery and sprinkle heavily with minced parsley for attractive color.

WASHING VASES
To wash a deep vase or jar, add bits of wrapping paper to warm soapy water. Shake well. Ammonia in the rinse water will add sparkle.
