Miss Honeycutt Is Married To S. Underwood

The wedding of Miss Jeanette Honeycutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Honeycutt of Waynesville, and Stanley Underwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Underwood of Lake Junaluska, was solemnized in the Dellwood Methodist Church, Saturday afternoon, June 16, at 4 o'clock.

The Rev. Grady Barringer, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and music was presented by Miss Elizabeth Summerrow, organist, and James Roy Moody, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of embroidered white polished cotton designed with molded bodice and full skirt. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a halo studded with seed pearls and she carried a white orchid on a Bible.

Miss Sally Stovall of Waynesville was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. Her dress was of ice blue crystaletta fashioned with long draped torso and full ballerina skirt. She wore a matching halo and carried a cascade bouquet of mixed flowers.

Dewey Gaddis served as best man and ushers were Ted Caldwell and Malcolm Clark.

Mrs. Underwood was graduated from Waynesville Township High School and has been employed at the Haywood Hospital.

Mr. Underwood was also graduated from the Waynesville schools and served four years in the Navy. He is now associated with his father in the Underwood Novelty Company.

For a wedding trip the bride wore a pink linen suit with white accessories and the orchid corsage from her Bible.

The couple will make their home at Lake Junaluska.
