Miss Billie Frances Kitchen Weds William H. Owen, Jr.

Miss Billie Frances Kitchen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Kitchen of Waynesville, became the bride of William Homer Owen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Owen, also of Waynesville, in the First Methodist Church, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Rev. Earl H. Brendall, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Fred Calhoun, organist, and Mrs. Bobby Allen, vocalist.

The vows were spoken before an ivy-covered arch, flanked with floor vases of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white embroidered organdy fashioned with scalloped v-neckline and cap sleeves. The bouffant skirt was designed with scalloped tiers, extending into a chapel train. She wore long matching mitts ending in points over the hands and a fingertip veil of illusion attached to a Victorian half-crown of lace encrusted with seed pearls and bugle beads. She carried a cascade bouquet of fuji mums.

Miss Reta Jean Kitchen was her sister's maid of honor. Her gown of blue embroidered organdy was designed with full skirt and Italian neckline. She wore a Juliet cap of matching organdy trimmed with blue flowers and she carried a cascade bouquet of blue and white anemone chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaid, Miss Sue Owen, sister of the bridegroom, wore a dress identical in color and design to that of the honor attendant. Her Juliet cap was trimmed with pink and blue flowers and she carried a bouquet of pink and blue anemone chrysanthemums.

Linda Kitchen and Ann Owen, sisters of the bride and bridegroom, were junior attendants. Their dresses of pink embroidered organdy were identical to those of the other attendants and they wore

The flower girl, Martha Jane Campbell, cousin of the bridegroom was dressed as a miniature bride, wearing a floor-length dress of white net taffeta.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Bobbie Tipton, Miss Janet Kitchen, Mrs. Janet Beck, Miss Patsy Long, Mrs. Wade Francis, Mrs. Joe Howell, Mrs. C. H. Metcalfe, Jr., Mrs. David Noland, Mrs. Perry Morrow, Miss Margaret Noland, Miss Shirley Conatser, Miss Gerry Thompson, and Mrs. Jerry Evans.

George Owen, brother of the bridegroom was best man.

Tommy Owen and Teddy Owen, brothers of the bridegroom, Charles Burgin, cousin of the bridegroom, and Cecil Sitton of Greensboro were ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony with the parents of the bride entertaining in the fellowship hall of the church.

Mrs. Kitchen, mother of the bride, wore a dress of beige embossed silk with rust accessories. Her corsage was of lavender carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore pale green orlon and lace with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Assisting were Miss Mary Cornwell, Mrs. Edwin Russell, Mrs. Frances Jones, Mrs. Kyle Campbell, Mrs. W. H. Burgin, Mrs. George Owen, and Mrs. Lynwood Grahl.

For a wedding trip the bride wore a sheath dress of beige Italian silk and matching full-length coat, accented with gold and green. Her corsage was of orchids.

Mrs. Owen was graduated from Waynesville High School and the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. She will join the faculty of the Waynesville High School this fall.
