Christ Among the Churches

JESUS PROMISES TO ALWAYS BE NEAR THOSE WHO LOVE HIM

Scripture—Matthew 18:20; John 21:1-14; Revelation 1-3.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

THE PROMISE of Jesus Christ to be with them always "where two or three are gathered together in My Name," was made in Capernaum "when the larger number of His miracles had been performed and most of His teaching was finished." I quote from the Peloubet's Notes from Dr. Wilbur Smith's commentaries on the lesson.

comforting are His words while we are living in a world that seems full of conflict and turmoil? Let us remember them, and rely on His promise.

Jesus made 10 appearances to His Apostles after the Resurrection and His Ascension. The one recorded in John in today's lesson was the seventh, and we do not know when it took place, but it was at the Sea of Galilee, sometimes called the Sea of Tiberias.

MEMORY VERSE

"Behold, I stand at the door, and knock; if any man hear My voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me."—Revelation 3:20.

Seven of the Apostles were gathered together—Simon Peter, Thomas, Nathanael of Cana, the two sons of Zebedee, James and John, and two others. Peter said he was going fishing, so the others said they would go, too. They fished all night but took nothing. As morning dawned, Jesus stood on the shore, but the men didn't know Him.

As they neared the shore Jesus asked, "Children have ye any meat?" They answered, "No." "Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find," Jesus told them. They did so and the net became so filled that they were not able to draw it to shore. Then John, the "beloved disciple," exclaimed, "It is the Lord!" and when Peter heard that he threw himself into the sea and swam ashore.

The rest brought the ship in and they saw a fire had been made, and fish and bread spread out on the shore. Jesus told them to bring in the fish they had caught and they cooked the fish, and ate the bread. "Why did the Apostles go fishing? It might be that this was a time of waiting, that the men were restless not knowing quite what to do as nearly two weeks had passed since the Resurrection and there were no plans made for the future.

However, Jesus appeared to them, and guided them. If He had not come to them, it is possible that they might have gone back to their former occupations, becoming fishermen again instead of preachers of the gospel. What a tragedy that would have been! A Revelation, written by John the beloved disciple, writes to the "seven churches that are in Asia." "I, John who also am your brother, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

"I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last; and, what thou seest write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea."

We must trust the teacher to read the rest of the book of Revelation assigned to our lesson, and help the pupils interpret the lessons taught therein. As John turned he saw the glorified Lord who said to him, "Fear not; I am the first and the last."

"Fear not!" Think of those words from Jesus' lips as He stood in glory in Heaven. You are discouraged, fearful of the future, not only for yourself, but for your loved ones — for the whole world? "Fear not," said Christ, "for I am with you always."

WHAT'S COOKING?

It's fun to mix a lot of things and wonder how they'll "turn out." It's fun until you try to eat your own "exter-special" muffins. Then you wish you had used Mommy's old-fashioned recipe.

Thousands of parents are sharing today the disillusionment that is in store for our little cook—but on a more bitter scale. As juvenile offenders are herded into our police stations, courts and reformatories, heart-broken parents watch and wonder. What did they do wrong? Why didn't Johnny turn out to be a boy they could be proud of?

When you try to answer those questions you can't help but recall the old-fashioned recipe for raising children. It calls for generous portions of prayer, family worship, Church attendance. But more than eight million children are growing up today without ANY religious training.

When the church bells ring on Sunday morning, remember; the future of our nation, the character of our children, is at stake.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
