

New Members Of Beta Sigma Phi Honored At Tea

The Alpha Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi honored their new members and the Xi Omicron chapter with a tea Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Herbert Turner.

Greeting the guests at the door were Mrs. J. T. Russell and Mrs. Turner.

Mrs. Donald Morrow invited the guests to the dining room and Mrs. T. L. Gwyn presided at the tea table.

A yellow and green color scheme was carried out in the flower arrangements and refreshments.

The new members who were honored included Mrs. Leroy Walradd, Mrs. M. H. McAulay, Mrs. J. W. Clark and Mrs. Elmer Rawson.

Thirty guests were included in the courtesy.

Tuscola Garden Club Will Meet Wednesday

A luncheon meeting of the Tuscola Garden Club will be held Wednesday, October 24 with Mrs. Wallace and of Lake Junaluska at 12:30.

Mrs. Roy Floyd will present a program on "Preparing Materials for Dried Arrangements".

Mrs. Paul McElroy, Sr. will preside.

THIS ROUGH-LOOKING BAND of mountaineers and mountaineers is in reality a group of students at Crabtree-Iron Duff High School who underwent a joint initiation conducted Friday by the Future Farmers of America and Future Homemakers of America at the school.

(Mountaineer Photo.)

Mrs. T. V. Moore, Summer Resident, Taken By Death

Mrs. T. V. Moore, 79, of Miami, Fla., and a summer visitor here for many years, died in a Miami hospital October 7.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, October 9 in the Trinity Methodist Church of Miami followed by private graveside services at Miami City Cemetery.

The Rev. Joseph A. Tolle officiated and interment was in Miami City Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were F. M. Hudson, Judge Frank Smathers, D. Earl Wilson, J. Hamer Mercer, J. Avery Guyton, R. V. Waters, E. N. Beicher, L. Cecil Boss, Dr. Thomas W. Hutson, George E. Whittier, Daniel J. Mahoney, T. N. Gauties, John A. Gauties, Henry O. Shaw, Lon Worth Crow, Sr., and Harry J. Etheridge.

Mrs. Moore was a native of Wheeler, W. Va. Since 1901 she has been an aggressive leader in many phases of community life in Miami. With equal enthusiasm she worked for hospitals and libraries, was prominent in charity and welfare drives, in politics, in women's organizations, in civic affairs and in church work.

Her husband, who was known as this country's "Pineapple King" died in 1927.

Survivors include two sons, Theodore W. Moore and T. V. Moore; a daughter, Mrs. Pauline Fussell, 8 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren, all of Miami.

Miss Rich Dies In Hazelwood

Miss Elizabeth Wheaton Rich died Friday at her home in Hazelwood.

Miss Rich had made her home in Hazelwood for the past ten years, residing with her sister, Mrs. Laura B. Lawrence.

She was born in Mount Vernon, N. Y., and lived there until coming to Hazelwood. She was a member of the Episcopal Church.

The funeral service was conducted in the home Sunday afternoon by the Rev. James Y. Perry, Jr., rector of Grace Episcopal Church.

Surviving, in addition to Mrs. Lawrence, is a brother, Walter W. Rich of New London, N. H.

Mrs. John Jeffords Died At Florida Home

Mrs. John R. Jeffords of Clearwater, Fla., who had been a regular summer visitor to Waynesville for the past fifty years died at her home Thursday following a brief illness.

Funeral services were held in Clearwater on Saturday.

Mrs. Jeffords and her husband who died a few years ago and was an orange grower in Florida, spent many years as guests at Mrs. R. H. Blackwell's guest home here.

Mrs. Jeffords is survived by two nieces.

Democratic Rally Set Tuesday At Saunook

There will be a Democratic precinct rally at Saunook School, Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 7 p.m. Loranzo Smathers, chairman of the county executive committee will be the speaker.

Mrs. Herbert Singletary invited all Democrats to attend.

Radio Club Meeting Is Set For Saturday

The Boys Radio Club will meet at the Free Methodist Church Saturday, October 27 at 10 a.m.

The pastor, the Rev. L. S. Hoover will be present to supervise the boys and teach them to make small crystal radio receiver sets.

ADDRESS WANTED

Anyone knowing the present address of Johnny Moody Henson is asked to contact the local draft board.

A report from the draft board indicates that mail sent out to him recently has been returned unclaimed.

EGYPTIAN COMMANDO WOUNDED

INTERCEPTED BY AN ISRAELI patrol near the desert home of Israel's Premier David Ben-Gurion, an Egyptian "suicide" commando is treated for wounds at a hospital in Jerusalem. Two of four infiltrators were killed and the others wounded in a grim clash near Sdeh Boker in northern Negev. At the time, Premier Ben-Gurion was in Tel Aviv attending a cabinet meeting. (International Radiophoto)

W. G. Rhinehardt Now Pastor Of Bridge Church

The Rev. W. G. Rhinehardt has assumed his duties as pastor of the New Bridge Baptist Church in the Buncombe association.

During the past two years Mr. Rhinehardt served as pastor of the Rocky Branch Baptist Church, located on the Allens Creek Rd. During his pastorate here he was active in the work of the Haywood Baptist Association.

Prior to his pastorate here he served a church in Gastonia for 13 years. He is a graduate of Carson Newman College, Maryville, Tenn., and attended Harrison Chiholme Institute of Seymour, Tenn. and Gardner-Webb College at Bowling Springs.

Rev. and Mrs. Rhinehardt live at 101 Elk Mountain Rd.

Paul Lee Back From Mediterranean Cruise

Paul V. Lee, boatswain's mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Lee of Clyde, is serving aboard the tactical command ship USS Northampton which arrived in Norfolk, Va., Oct. 1, after a five-month tour with the 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean.

The ship visited Naples, San Remo and Genoa, Italy; Istanbul, Turkey and Rhodes, Greece.

For Quality Merchandise and Nationally Advertised Brands At Low, Low Prices — Visit

THE SMART SHOP
Main St. GL 6-8210

2 Haywood Men On 5-Day Tour

Two Haywood men, Joe and Glenn Palmer of the Clyde area, are among twenty-one North Carolina farmers who left Sunday for a five-day tour of midwestern land-grant colleges.

The farmers will visit Purdue University at Lafayette, Ind., Iowa

State College, the University of Wisconsin and Michigan State University. They will observe the operations of agricultural programs. Also making the tour was Wayne Corpening, former Haywood County agent.

The East Texas oil field produced more than 75 million barrels last year, three times as much as any other field in the United States.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Plott of Asheville, announce the birth of a son, Jonathan Haywood, at the Memorial Mission Hospital, Asheville, on October 21. Mr. Plott is a former resident of Waynesville and the son of Mrs. G. C. Plott and the late Mr. Plott.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Prevost were guests of the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Houghland in Nashville, Tenn., during the past weekend.

Those attending the Tennessee-Alabama football game at Knoxville, Tennessee Saturday included Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cathey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cobb, Dr. and Mrs. James Fender, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. J. Weaver Kirkpatrick and Dr. and Mrs. Heyward Smith.

Albert Gibson, Jr., has returned to Greenville, S. C., after spending the weekend with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan will return today from Greensboro where they visited their daughter, Miss Linda Sloan, who is a student at Greensboro College.

Mr. and Mrs. William Medford and son, Jimmy, attended the State Fair in Raleigh, and also attended the Carolina-Maryland football game in Chapel Hill, the past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Francis spent the weekend in High Point with their daughter, Miss Jane Dudley Francis, and also attended the Carolina-Maryland game in Chapel Hill. They were joined in High Point and at the game by another daughter, Miss Nancy Francis, of Greensboro.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Border spent the week in Raleigh.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Stringfield and two of their children, Mary Love and Sam, spent the weekend in Raleigh and Chapel Hill and attended the State Fair and the Carolina-Maryland football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hall and three sons of Asheville are guests of Mrs. Hall's mother, Mrs. Robert Osborne, on Love Lane.

Ralph Prevost is now attending the furniture market at High Point, where he showed the Augusta Furniture Co.'s fall line of merchandise.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ray returned Sunday, after spending the weekend in Chapel Hill, where they attended the Carolina-Maryland game. On the trip down they stopped over in Greensboro.

Births

New arrivals at the Haywood County Hospital include:

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Wilson of Canton on October 19.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wells of Clyde on October 19.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roeder of Maggie on October 19.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. William Body of Canton on October 19.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wyatt of Waynesville on October 20.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rogers of Canton on October 20.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards of Waynesville on October 20.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Frello Barker of Waynesville on October 20.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beck of Canton on October 21.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. William Woody of Canton on October 21.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cates of Waynesville on October 21.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nelson of Waynesville on October 22.

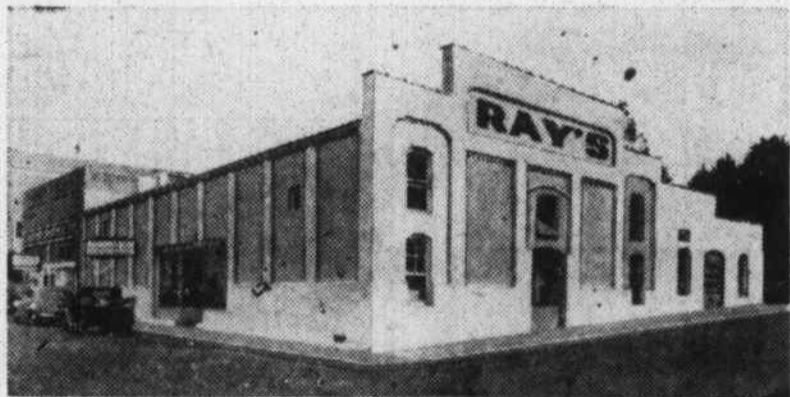

Miss Sally Stovall, who is now in training at the Henry Grady School of Nursing, Atlanta, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Stovall, on Woolsey Heights. Miss Stovall's guests here were Miss Barbara Wheeler of Lakeland, Fla., and Miss Eloise Snyder of Atlanta.

Miss Marguerite Russ, now in training at the University of North Carolina School of Nursing, Chapel Hill, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Curtis Russ. Miss Russ was accompanied by Clifton Metcalf, also a student at UNC.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Curtis spent the weekend in Chapel Hill and attended the Carolina-Maryland football game.

A cluster of seedless grapes, a fresh pear half or some wedges of red-skinned apple help to make a luncheon sandwich look and taste good. The fruit will be delicious with a filling of ham, chicken or cheese.

ON — THIS WEEK At RAY'S FALL FESTIVAL BARGAINS

Special Values Every Dept.

- Children's Wear
- Boys' Wear
- Blankets
- Sheets
- Bedspread
- Overalls
- Work Clothes
- Sport Shirts

LAY - AWAYS O.K. With Small Deposit

PLENTIFUL PARKING FOR YOU.

COMPLETE ONE - STOP FAMILY SHOPPING DUXBAK HUNTING CLOTHES - RICHIE WOOLENS

RAY'S DEPT. STORE

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS SALE ENTIRE STOCK OF PICTURE FRAMES TO BE SOLD AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES HUGH B. NORTON STUDIO Main Street, Waynesville GL 6-3257

SPECIAL BUY! Nationally Advertised SUMMIT SKIRTS BIG CHOICE!

- Tweeds, Stripes, Solids, Checks
- Imported Wool Fabrics
- Leather Belts
- 100% Wools, Luxury Blends

Get Set For Winter! SKIRTS $8.95

Great wardrobe stretchers! Switch from blouses to sweaters and back again — have a new look, a fresh viewpoint! And the picking will never be better! Soft wool flannels, wool-and-nylon tweeds—even reprocessed wool and cashmere! That price? Definitely budget-minded! 24-30.

SHOP BELK'S for better selections, better buys! BUY BELK'S for certified better values!