Haywood Set To Cast Record Vote Tuesday

CDP Meeting Set Thursday To Announce 1956 Prizes

$1,000 In Prize Money Is At Stake

A total of $1,000 in prize money will be awarded to Haywood County communities at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the courthouse at the annual CDP meeting, which will also include election of 1957 officers, a beauty contest, music, and a talk on rural development by an Asheville man.

Competing for $800 in the community contest and another $200 in the form of eight incentive prizes of $25 each will be Allens Creek, Francis Cove, Ratcliffe Cove, South Clyde, Iron Duff, Upper Crabtree, and Thickety.

Judging of the seven communities was conducted last Thursday and Friday by Mrs. Marie Haynes Buckner, assistant home agent in Madison County; W. H. Flake, county agent on the Cherokee Indian Reservation, and R. L. Lyday, county agent of Swain County.

Principal speaker for the meeting Thursday night will be W. F. Algary, manager of the J. C. Penney store at Asheville, who has been active in the work of the Asheville Agricultural Development Council and the rural development program in Western North Carolina.

Already entered in the CDP Beauty Queen contest by noon today were Judy Ann Harris of Thickety; Mildred Smith of Allens Creek; Patricia Messer of Upper Crabtree; Joyce Coward of Ratcliffe Cove; Reva Jackson of South Clyde; Frances Frizzell of East Pigeon; Eva Stevenson of Iron Duff; and Ann McClure of Saunook.

Three Vehicles In Accident In West Canton

Mrs. Troy Stamey, Clyde, remained in the Haywood Hospital today, where she is suffering from painful lacerations and abrasions which she sustained about 7 p.m. Saturday night, when her car was hit from behind in a 3-vehicle accident, West Canton, at the intersection of the four-lane highway.

Police and highway patrol are investigating the accident which involved the 1951 Plymouth in which Mrs. Stamey was a passenger. The vehicle was being driven by her daughter, Miss Sue Stamey.

A 1955 Chevrolet, driven by Henry Shook, was turned over, and the front end of a 1951 Ford driven by Jerome Scott was damaged, the officers said.

Mrs. Stamey was the only person hurt in the 3-car accident.

Gunshot Wound Victims Are Reported Improved

Two Haywood County residents who suffered gunshot wounds last week were reported by Sheriff Fred Y. Campbell today to be in an improved condition in hospitals.

Mrs. Way Arrington, 45, of Panther Creek, was wounded when she tripped and fell while hunting with a P-38 German pistol. She is in Memorial Mission Hospital, Asheville.

Oliver Hicks, 50, of Big Bend, in a Newport, Tenn. hospital, suffered a shotgun wound on his hand when the weapon was discharged in his home.

Black Sow Has Litter Of 16 Snow-White Pigs

There'll probably be a lot of pork on the U. F. Clark farm, Fines Creek, for a long time to come.

His black Poland-China sow just had a litter of 16 snow-white pigs. The pigs are a cross of Poland-China and OIC.

Specialists point out that eight pigs for a sow of this breed is unusually fine.

Two of the pigs were crushed by the mother, as she accidentally rolled on them during dinner time. The runt of the litter died. Because of the lack of feeding facilities, Mr. and Mrs. Clark have taken one of the smaller pigs for a pet and are bottle feeding it, while two other pigs have been given to a son and daughter. This leaves the sow with 10 youngsters who never know when they have had enough to eat.

The sow had six pigs in her first litter, and nine the second time, making a total of 31 pigs in three litters.

When it is feeding time, and the 10 white pigs nestle up close to their black mother, it gives an impression of ten snowballs on a pile of coal.

Haywood Leads All W.N.C. In Number Of Rural Phones

Haywood county leads all Western North Carolina, by a substantial margin, in the percentage of farms with telephones. Haywood has 48 per cent, according to a recent survey, as compared with the state average of 18 per cent.

The percentage in Haywood would be much higher now, since lines have been extended into the White Oak area — the last community in the county without telephone service.

Only three other counties in the state lead Haywood—Gaston, Rowan and Mecklenburg.

Percentages of neighboring counties include: Buncombe 20.6; Henderson 39; Madison 4.8; Transylvania 10.4; Jackson 13.4; Macon 8.2; Swain 5.3; Graham 3.3; Cherokee 6.5; and Clay 8.1.

Record Democratic Crowd Hears Sen. Scott At Rally

Rally Sidelights

Senator W. Kerr Scott told Haywood's largest political rally audience at Clyde Thursday night. "We have a weak, wishy-washy foreign policy that is dictated by a man who doesn't know the difference between the brink of war and peace," as he referred to Secretary of State Dulles.

Senator Scott hit at several members of the Eisenhower cabinet, but centered his most caustic remarks at Secretary Dulles, whom he termed "widely traveled, but apparently poorly informed."

"One day Dulles tells us the United States is turning back the tide of Communism. The next day we get news that half of Indo-China has been gobbled up by the Communists.

"Only week before last the American people were told there was good news in the Middle East. In a matter of hours fighting broke out between Egypt and Israel. Either Secretary Dulles was pitifully ignorant about what was going on in that area, or he was deliberately misinforming the American people."

Senator Scott said that Dulles "ought to resign or be forced to resign. . . . We are faced with the (See Scott—Page 3)

A pleasant surprise to many of the Democrats was the large number of young people—many teenagers attending the rally.

W. G. Byers, Glenn W. Brown and Congressman George A. Shuford all made mention in their introduction talks of the much publicized "Joe Smith." (See Rally Sidelights—Page 3)

THESE ARE CLYDE FANS, and needless to say, the picture was made just as the Clyde football team made a touchdown Saturday night in the Skyline Conference Championship game at Canton. Some 3,500 fans saw the two teams play an excellent game, with Glen Alpine winning 20-14.

Election News To Be Broadcast

The staff of The Mountaineer, Board of Elections and WHCC will compile the election returns from Haywood's 29 precincts Tuesday night.

The results will be broadcast throughout the evening, along with news of state and national races.

Registrants plan to announce the results of each ticket in their precinct immediately.

There is only one contest in the Townships for constable, and that is in East Fork, where Clayton Pressley, Democrat, is opposed by Frank Heatherly, Republican.

There are candidates without opposition in Waynesville, Beavertown, Clyde and Fines Creek townships.

Patrol Arrests 15 At Check-Up

The highway patrol made 15 arrests while checking some 1,000 vehicles in a routine check-up at Clyde Friday afternoon.

Cpl. Pritchard Smith said the arrests included motorists with expired operator's license, improper mufflers and no turn signals.

The check-ups are staged periodically.

Haywood Residents Realize Gravity Of World Situation

Wherever Haywood County people are gathering today, there is a tenseness and seriousness to their talk about the current conflicts in Hungary and Egypt — either one of which could be a forerunner to a third World War.

County residents remember that Haywood had the nation's highest percentage of volunteers in World War II, and the county today has several hundred young men and women serving in U.S. armed forces all over the world, and an additional large number in reserve units here and in Asheville.

Both Hungary and Egypt are a long way from Western North Carolina, but Haywood countians are well aware of the grave significance of the crises in these areas overseas.

Cardinals Barely Nosed Out Of Championship

While the scoreboard wasn't a pleasing sight to the thousands of Clyde football fans Saturday night, the hard-fighting Cardinals are still rated as "Champs" in the hearts of Haywood.

The highly successful Clyde team, playing against two major bad breaks, and a heavier team, never gave up, and their spirit poured out by their many backers. About 3,500 attended the game.

It was a good game, and a hard championship crown to lose by six points, but the Cardinals can look back on the 1956 season as an era when football arrived in all its full glory at Clyde high.

Seldom has a team had more ardent supporters than the Cardinals.

The Green Wave of Glen Alpine was quick to capitalize on a fumble in the early minutes of the game, and marched on to score and add the extra point.

The Cardinals played their best game of the season — and until Saturday night had won nine straight games, with their goal being crossed for only 12 points.

Coach Brown Griffin, Cardinal Coach, was quick to praise the team as having put up their best fight of the season. The two bad (See Clyde—Page 6)

All absentee ballots must be in the hands of the chairman by 3 p.m. Tuesday in order to be counted. All absentee ballots must be returned to the Board of Elections office and not to the precinct of the registered voter.

County GOP Rally Set Tonight, 7:30

W. W. (Tony) Candler, Asheville attorney, will address a county-wide Republican rally tonight, Clyde high school, 7:30. Plans for the meeting were made Saturday night at a special meeting of the Haywood County Republican Executive Committee, and the Haywood County Young Republican Club.

Gudger Duckett, county chairman, said all Republicans, Republican judges, independents, and Democrats for Eisenhower, were expected to attend the party.

The contract was signed October 19, and the contractor has 90 days in which to complete the job. The renovation cost will be about $3,100, the postmaster explained.

Dr. Underwood Dies At 30 In Miami, Fla.

Dr. Russell Spaldon Underwood, 30, died Saturday morning in a Miami, Fla., hospital of a kidney infection. He became ill last Sunday and went into a coma Wednesday.

He rallied briefly Friday night, long enough to recognize and talk to members of his family.

A rosary was said at 8 a.m. Sunday at St. Michael's Church.

Funeral services were held at 9 a.m. today at the same church. Burial was in Miami.

He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Jean Bennett of Miami, a daughter, Carol; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spaldon Underwood, Waynesville; and two brothers, Richard of Asheville, and Phillip of Waynesville.

Dr. Underwood, a native of Waynesville, graduated from St. John's High School here, was an honor student at Notre Dame University, and was graduated from medical school at Duke University. He served his internship at St. Louis, Mo., City Hospital, and was resident physician at Jackson Memorial Hospital, Miami, until two years ago when he became an associate of Dr. Herbert Michael of Miami.

16,000 Total Is Foreseen By Officials

Political observers here this morning were of the opinion that Haywood's voting Tuesday would break all records, and reach the 16,000 mark, which will be 1,500 above the 1952 record.

Interest in the election was mounting on every hand, with both political parties staging last minute workouts and optimism coming from both sides.

Mrs. Fred Y. Campbell, vice chairman of the Haywood Democratic Executive Committee, said: "We have set a goal of a 3,500 majority in the presidential election — this will be a gain of 800 over 1952. We believe we will reach our goal, because we have the workers who are ready to get out a big vote."

Charles Hawkins, Republican member of the board of elections, predicted that "if Haywood votes 16,000 — and I agree that might be the total, then the Democrats will get nine and the Republicans seven — for an overall margin of 2,000 in the presidential election for the Democrats. This will be 700 fewer than the last presidential election. I believe the Republicans have made that much headway in Haywood since the last election," Hawkins continued.

John R. Carver, chairman of the board of elections, said everything was in readiness, as far as he could tell, for the predicted record vote. Chairman Carver stuck by his original prediction of 16,000 votes to be cast Tuesday.

During the recent registration period over 1,000 new names were (See Election—Page 3)

A. J. Green Makes Perfect Mark In Football Contest

Move over Don Larsen!

Arthur J. Green of Waynesville "pitched" a perfect game of his own last weekend by correctly naming the winners of 10 football games, and predicting 20 points by his original prediction of 16,000 votes to be cast Tuesday.

The Mountaineers blanked the Cyclones 20-0, to establish Mr. Green as a pigskin prognosticator without peer.

Eleven other persons missed only one game, and 26 missed only two.

Allens Creek Boy Unhurt As Car Overturns

Walker Stuart Duckett, 16, of Allens Creek escaped injury when he was thrown from his 1951 Ford as it overturned on the Crabtree road at 9:30 p.m. Friday.

Patrolman Harold Dayton of the Highway Patrol reported that Duckett lost control of his car on a sharp curve, causing it to skid for 102 feet, and then roll over for another 138 feet.

The youth was charged with exceeding a safe speed, and driving on the wrong side of the road. Damage to his car was estimated at $300.

SOON TO RETURN HOME

Mrs. Maude Jones is expected to return home early this week from Mission Hospital, Asheville, where she recently underwent an operation.
