

Yule Decoration Contest Plans Are Announced

The Highland Garden Club will sponsor its annual outdoor Christmas decorations contest in the community, with Mrs. William McLeod serving as chairman.

This year contestants will not be required to register with the garden club, but judges will make a tour of the entire Waynesville area to judge all decorations as seen from the outside. Those who feel they might be missed by the judges or who particularly wish to be judged, may contact Mrs. McLeod. The date of judging will be announced later.

Cash prizes will be awarded in five divisions—home decorations and business windows. There will be two classifications for business, one to include stores with the customary type decorations and the second to include stores with decorations carrying out a special theme.

director.

The seniors have received their "calling cards" and are in the process of exchanging with their classmates. The senior girls were given the Betty Crocker Homemaker test Tuesday.

The new trophy cases in the gym look beautiful! The FFA boys built them. The one installed when the gym was constructed would not house all the trophies. We are proud of our many awards.
