

Grahl-Jones Wedding Is Held In Kannapolis

Miss Shirley Jane Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Garman Jones of Kannapolis, and Dr. Carol Linwood Grahl, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Linwood Grahl of Waynesville, were married in the First Baptist Church at Kannapolis, Sunday, December 30, at 4 o'clock.

The Rev. Charles Coffey, pastor, officiated and wedding music was presented by James Slaughter, of Kannapolis, vocalist, and Mrs. Alton W. Laxton, of Concord, organist.

Arrangements of white gladioli and seven-branched candelabra with holly were used in decorating the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of nylon tulle and lace featured a scalloped neckline accented with sequins and pearls and a fitted bodice with long sleeves. The bouffant skirt was floor length and her line-art veil of illusion was attached to a crown of sequins and pearls. She carried an orchid with lilies of the valley on a white lace-covered Bible.

Miss Sara Jo Hanna of Winston-Salem, college roommate of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of emerald green chiffon fashioned with draped long train and full floor-length skirt. Her hairdo was of matchless white flowers with a small circular veil. She carried a white fur muff decorated with holly.

Miss Beatha Spencer of Washington, N. C., also a classmate of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her dress and accessories were identical to that of the maid of honor.

Mildred Kay Irvin, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a white gypsy dress with an emerald green taffeta sash.

Charles Eugene Medford, of Virginia, cousin of the bridegroom served as best man. He wore a tuxedo. Brothers-in-law of the bridegroom, Mrs. Franklin Jones of Kannapolis, brother-in-law of the bride, and Lloyd Elmer Johnston of Winston-Salem, brother-in-law of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in their home.

Mrs. Jones, mother of the bride, wore a tulle dress with winter white accessories and her corsage was of white roses. Mrs. Grahl, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue dress with matching accessories and her corsage was also of white roses.

For a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. and New York, the bride wore a suit of pastel blue wool with matching jeweled hat and brown accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her

Library Notes

Films available at the Haywood County library from January 7 to February 1 are listed below:

1. ADMIRAL DEWEY'S VICTORY AT MANILA (YA) 27 minutes-sound-black and white May 1, 1898. Dewey's victory over the Spanish fleet at Manila, and the doubtful moment preceding his decision to enter Manila Bay. Brings to life a significant episode in American history and a decisive moment in the Spanish-American War.

2. COOLIDGE STRING QUARTET (WA) 10 minutes-sound-black and white. This film features the Coolidge String Quartet in concert with a repertoire of Dittersdorf's Andante and Beethoven's Fugue.

3. FIRST MAJOR TEST OF PENICILLIN (YA) 27 minutes-sound-black and white. April 1, 1943, the dramatic moment when a yellow-brown powder became the hope of millions of sick and wounded. Shows the place of scientific development in modern medicine, and its influence in both peace and war.

4. HONG KONG (BIS) 15 minutes-sound-black and white. A comprehensive view of the colony of Hong Kong, both from within and in relation to Far Eastern problems. An examination of the colony's situation, social system, problems of immigration and population, revealing their life on sampans and junks, on farms, in squalid slums, in factories, and at the docks, including a clear picture of Britain's position.

5. PARENTS ARE PEOPLE TOO (McGraw-Hill) 15 minutes-sound-black and white. Since good understanding with parents is essential to the emotional health of teenagers, an instructor leads a discussion group and helps teenagers discover they can earn privileges by proof of capability; evaluate matters about which parents "nag" so that both parents and teenagers work for improvement; and reassure their parents that growing up means not growing away, but growing into more mature companionship.

6. RACE RELATIONS (YA) 25 minutes-sound-black and white. This film tells the dynamic story of how a large American community (Baltimore) is aided by a distant university (Fisk) in learning how to live in peaceful cooperation despite tensions caused by differences in color and in social and religious backgrounds.

Two Part Triumph

By VERA WINSTON
THERE'S double delight in this evening dress since it is composed of two parts and both are interchangeable—an especially good idea for the traveler. The blouse, V-cut at back and shoulders is of black velvet. It has a drawstring waist with tubular bow-tie in front. Back has higher neckline. Skirt is a nice contrast, an airy affair of white chiffon which can be paired with any number of tops just as the blouse would do well with a red or a black skirt.

Byron Barr Is Married In Las Vegas

Actress Elizabeth Montgomery, 24, only daughter of actor Robert Montgomery, and Byron Barr, known in films as Gig Young, 38, were married in Las Vegas, Nev., Friday night. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Barr of Waynesville.

It was the second marriage for Miss Montgomery, who divorced Gallatin Gamman, New York casting director, last year. Barr's first wife, Sophie Rosenstein, died in 1952.

Miss Julia Ann Stovall arrived yesterday from Charlotte to spend a few days with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Stovall. She will also accompany them to Raleigh later in the week to attend the wedding of George Dewey Stovall Jr. and Miss Mary Helen Cross which will take place Saturday afternoon.

PARENT PROBLEMS

How To Help Keen Youth Who Fails In His Studies
By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph. D.
IT is discouraging to parents and teachers to find that a youth of average or above average ability has no real interest in study. A Pennsylvania mother writes of her son, 14:
"He isn't interested in anything at school and doesn't get along with the other children. He says that everyone is against him and that he is blamed for everything."
Poor Student
"He is falling in his studies. Yet tests he has taken in school reveal he is able to do above average work. But he won't even try for averages, so the teachers are disgusted."
"He is overweight. He likes to read and watch television. His one hobby is photography."
This was my reply in part. Since your son is interested in photography, you might be able to get him to join or organize a photography club and to read books and magazines in this field. His superior knowledge and skill in photography could win him good friends among other boys.
Related Books
Dad might give him a subscription to a photography magazine and bring home related books. It would be wonderful if Dad could become interested in this hobby, too. It would give them many opportunities for conversation and companionship. Before long, you

The Ballards Are Hostesses For Garden Club

The Misses Ray and Louise Ballard were hostesses at a meeting of the Richland Garden Club Thursday afternoon in their home at Lake Junaluska. They were assisted in receiving by their mother Mrs. L. J. Ballard.
