

THE PROGRESS.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PROGRESS PRINTING COMPANY.

Vol. IV. No. 19.

ENFIELD, N. C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1908.

$1.50 Per Year Cash.

A Pretty Marriage at Whitakers' Chapel.

Wednesday, December 16, at half past two in the afternoon at Whitakers' Chapel, was solemnized a most beautiful marriage when Miss Blanche Powell Beavans became the bride of Mr. Stanley Cotten Whitaker.

The church was tastefully decorated with ivy, periwinkle and potted plants, the color scheme being green and white. Just before the entrance of the bridal party "O Promise Me" was sweetly rendered by Mrs. D. A. Ricks, sister of the groom, with organ accompaniment by Miss Ruby Whitaker. As the first chords of Lohengrin's bridal march pealed forth, came the ushers, Messrs. Glenn Wills down the right aisle and John Cary Whitaker down the left aisle crossing in front of the altar. Then came the bridesmaids, Misses Ella Stallings and Susie Whitaker, gowned in white messaline, with picture hats, and carrying white carnations and ferns. They were followed by the groomsmen, Messrs. Ferdie Whitaker and Edward Ricks. Leaning on the arm of her maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Lucas, who was attired in white net over silk with picture hat and carrying white carnations and ferns, came the bride gowned in a blue tailored suit and carrying brides roses. The groom with his best man, Mr. Lawrence Whitaker, met her at the altar, where in a most impressive manner, the Rev. C. L. Whitaker united them in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Flower Song was softly played during the ceremony. The recessional was Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker left on the northbound train for an extended trip. They were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents. They have the good wishes of a host of friends.

Mr. John J. Barnhill.

Mr. John J. Barnhill died Thursday night of last week at the Soldiers Home in Raleigh where he had only been for a short time. While Mr. Barnhill was not bound by force of circumstances to go to the Soldiers Home, it had been his life-long desire that he may be permitted to go there to spend some time with the men who, like himself, had faced death on many a bloody battlefield, and who suffered all the hardships which mortal man could suffer during the fierce struggle between the States. It was this tie that bound him closer than a brother to his veteran companions.

Mr. Barnhill was 70 years of age and had been in ill health for sometime, having had a stroke of paralysis about the first of the year. He served through the entire Civil War, first enlisting with Co. I, 1st N. C. V. Regiment, known as the Bethel Six Months Regiment, after this regiment was disbanded he enlisted as sergeant with Co. A, 47th N. C. V. Regiment, and served through to the close of the war.

Mr. Barnhill is survived by his wife, five sons, Messrs. John E. L. J., L. H., Walter, and D. W. Barnhill; two daughters, Mrs. Cad Griffin, of Rocky Mount, and Miss Carrie Barnhill, of this place. He is also survived by three brothers and three sisters, Messrs. M. V., William E. and Alfred Barnhill, all of this place; and Mrs. C. V. Harper, of Rocky Mount, and Mesdames Jim and Henry Weeks, of Crowells.

His remains were brought to Enfield on 82 Friday night and laid to rest in Elmwood Cemetery at 11:30 Saturday morning, the Rev. C. L. Whitaker conducting the burial services.

Dance Last Night.

The old Masonic hall was the scene of a very pretty dance last night, given by the young men of Enfield, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Cunnrell, of Goldsboro. The music was furnished by the Crocchi's Orchestra, of Wilson. The dance was gracefully led by Mr. F. C. Whitaker.

The couples dancing were: F. C. Whitaker with Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, L. F. Whitaker with Mrs. L. F. Whitaker, H. Cuthrell with Miss Mollie Ruffin, S. P. Hunt with Miss Josephine Speight, Frank Shaw with Miss Mary White, J. B. Atkinson with Miss Fannie Partridge, P. E. Whitehead with Miss Routh Bulluck, Albion Dunn, of Scotland Neck, with Mrs. R. C. Dunn, R. M. Wood with Miss Mattie Covington, Ashby Dunn, of Scotland Neck, with Mrs. J. R. Matthews, Frank Whitaker with Mrs. E. L. Whitehead, C. N. Kimball with Miss Sallie Dickens.

Stags: Messrs. Frank Mitchell, C. C. Lucas, and L. L. Cherry, of Scotland Neck.

Items of Interest From Halifax.

Halifax, N. C., Dec. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Faucett left Sunday for Portsmouth, their home after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Willcox.

Mrs. George Moore and little son of Spartanburg, S. C., and Mrs. Otis Hollowman, of Denton, N. C., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Coppedge.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Mullen, of Rosemary, have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Gary.

Mr. Quinton Gregory, one of "our Halifax boys" and son of the late Judge J. T. Gregory, who for years was the courteous and obliging clerk of Halifax Superior court, returned a few days ago from New York, on his way home from Hong Kong, China, where he has been stationed for three years in the interest of the American Tobacco Company.

Captain Mont. Whitehead departed this life on Sunday morning at 3 o'clock, December 12th, at his home one mile from this place, at the ripe age of 76. Mr. Whitehead was well known throughout this and adjoining counties, having lived here practically all his days. When a young man he enlisted in the A. C. Line service for about six years in the capacity of conductor. He afterwards, along in the '70's, ran the old Roanoke hotel, which was finally burned to the ground. He was also a very prominent merchant here for quite a number of years, doing an extensive business, and buying a vast amount of farm products. Misfortunes, though, of various kinds fell to his lot, and he lost all of the ground which he had by thrift and energy gained. Mr. Whitehead was a true type of the grand old Southern gentleman, courteous, obliging, sympathetic, useful and helpful in time of need.

He leaves one brother, Mr. J. A. Whitehead, of this place, one sister, Mrs. Fannie Tillery, of Richmond, and two daughters,

Christmas Bells.

I heard the bells on Christmas day
Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of "Peace on earth, good-will to men."

And thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom
Now roll along
The unbroken song
Of "Peace on earth, good-will to men."

Till ringing, singing, on its way,
The world revolved from night to day,
A voice, a chime,
A chant sublime,
Of "Peace on earth, good-will to men."

But in despair I bowed my head—
"There is no peace on earth," I said;
"For hate is strong,
And mock the song
Of "Peace on earth, good-will to men."

Then pealed the bells, more loud and deep,
"God is not dead; nor doth He sleep!
The Wrong shall fail, the Right prevail,
With peace on earth, good-will to men."

---Longfellow.

Mrs. Lizzie Williams, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Susie Rourke, of Victoria, Va. There were four sons who preceded him to the great beyond.

The remains were placed in the family cemetery on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock besides his loved ones, there to await the resurrection morn. The services were conducted by the Rev. L. F. Grady.

W. F. COPPEDGE.

Local and Personal.

Mr. S. D. Hancock was here from Weldon Wednesday.

Mr. S. M. Gary, of Halifax, was on our streets Tuesday.

Mr. J. E. Lewis was here Monday from Scotland Neck.

Miss Blanche Lee Wood spent a few days last week in Scotland Neck.

Mrs. W. T. Clement returned Thursday from a visit to friends in Norfolk.

We are glad to see Mr. D. P. Moore out again after several weeks sickness.

Mrs. D. A. Ricks, of Mayodan, is here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Lillie Whitaker.

Miss Annie Arrington returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Scotland Neck.

Mr. H. S. Harrison returned Wednesday from a visit to his sister in Lawrenceville, Va.

Mr. Hubert Whitaker is at home from Guilford College to spend the Christmas holidays.

"Was She to Blame?" is the next attraction billed for Enfield next Thursday night, Dec. 24th.

Mr. Robert Pettitt and Mr. Bradshaw were here Monday and Tuesday from Rocky Mount.

Miss Josephine Speight, of Tarboro, is here this week the guest of Mrs. Raymond C. Dunn.

Mr. Walker Hunter, of Rockingham, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Jennie Hunter, here this week.

Mrs. Leo Sultan, of Newbern, is spending the holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Meyer.

Mrs. Lucy Leggett left Wednesday to spend the holidays with relatives and friends in Scotland Neck.

Mr. D. W. Barnhill, of Petersburg, Va., was here last Saturday to attend the burial of his father, Mr. J. J. Barnhill.

Mr. Victor Barnhill came home from the University Thursday to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Barnhill.

Mr. Hunt Parker came home this morning from Chapel Hill to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Parker.

"Was She to Blame?" Don't know until I have seen the plot. At Stallings Opera House on Thursday night, Dec. 24th. Seats now selling.

The many friends of the Rev. J. E. Holden will be glad to learn that he has been sent back to Enfield and Halifax M. E. Churches for another year.

Mr. Paul Willey and Miss Maggie Hamill were married at Whitaker's Chapel last Sunday morning. The Rev. C. L. Whitaker performed the ceremony.

As we are trying to get all our accounts straight by the first of the new year, we kindly ask that all subscribers to The Progress, who are in arrears, call and settle up.

We are requested to announce that there will be a Christmas tree at Alsop's Chapel Monday night, December 28th. Services will begin at 8 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited.

Give the boys something practical, such as a box of carpenter's tools, a soldering set, or a drawing outfit, instead of guns, drums, and toy pistols. Teach creative not destructive force.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Cuthrell returned Tuesday night from their bridal tour north and are stopping with Mr. Cuthrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cuthrell. After spending the holidays here they will return to Goldsboro where they will make their future home.

Miss Esther W. Dickens, a trained nurse of Norfolk, and a daughter of Postmaster Thomas H. Dickens, who has been with Mrs. J. F. Whitehead during her late illness, left Saturday to take charge of a patient near Littleton. We are glad to note Mrs. Whitehead is much improved.

Special Reading Notices

Special notices, cards of thanks, etc., under this head are at the rate of one cent per word for each and every insertion, payable in advance.

Waterman's Ideal, the Pen that writes right. The sensible, useful gift for Christmas.
HARRISON'S PHARMACY.

A dandy lot of Ladies, and Misses' Cloaks at Less than Cost at Meyer's.

SPECIAL NOTICE—25 Guessing Coupons, on Free Graghaphone to be given away Christmas day, with every Suit or Overcoat purchased.
NEW YORK BARGAIN HOUSE.

If its a small gift in Jewelry you wish, we have it. The best you can buy.
HARRISON'S PHARMACY.

The Biggest and Best of Steam Laundrys, Troy-Monticello. Laundry collected on Monday afternoons and delivered on Friday afternoons. Headquarters at Harrison's Pharmacy.
JIM EDD CONDREY, Agent.

FARM FOR SALE—A farm of 89 acres, about 40 acres in cultivation lying on the outskirts of East Enfield, and part in the corporate limits of town. For particulars apply at this office.

A pretty assortment of high grade Writing Paper in Holiday Boxes. A dainty remembrance for a friend at this season. Come and see them at Harrison's Pharmacy.

A large line of Kid Gloves, long and short, all shades and sizes, just received. 150 suits for ladies and misses reduced to two-thirds of our regular price.
SPIERS BROS.,
Weldon, N. C.

FOR RENT and SALE—My Store Room, can give possession January 1st. Will also sell my entire stock of groceries. For particulars apply to M. T. Wood.

A beautiful line of Shoes for Men, Ladies, Misses, and Children at Way Down Prices as Meyer's.

It is useless for us to attempt to name the many pretty things we have for the Christmas trade; the better plan is: Come and see for yourself.
HARRISON'S PHARMACY.

NOW is the time for candy. The candy manufacturer from Weldon has moved here with all kinds of candy. Fancy and plain. Fresh goods every day.
CHRISTIAN GEORGE.

"Was She to Blame?"
"Was She to Blame?" on Friday evening proved one of the best plays ever put on at this place. The girl who played "Lady Curston" is a splendid actress, and the "J. P. of Huckelberry Township" could not be improved upon. As a whole the play proved itself a treat for our people, and the management did well in looking "Was She to Blame?"—Laurinburg Exchange, November 5, 1908.

CHRISTMAS! CHRISTMAS!!
GUNTER, on the Corner opposite the Bank of Enfield, carries the most select line of sensible Christmas presents found in town. Also a big reduction in his Millinery Department. To the men and boys: Go there and make yourselves a present of a Suit of Clothes, Overcoat, Hat, and Shoes.

Make Your Fruit Cake—New Citron, Seeded Raisins, Currants, Cellery, and Cranberries at Meyer's.

QUEEN QUALITY! QUEEN QUALITY!!

Don't forget that GUNTER makes a specialty of the Ladies' Queen Quality Shoe. Also a select line of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Bed-room Slippers.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS—There is no time like the present for buying Christmas presents. There is no place like Harrison's Pharmacy. The great variety in wares and toys for both old and the young vie with one another for recognition. There are scores of pretty and useful things that any one would be pleased to receive, high in quality, yet reasonable in price. Every article offered is backed by our guarantee. In justice to our reputation we examine every article put in our store most carefully, therefore knowing that what we sell is standard in quality and workmanship.
HARRISON'S PHARMACY.

A Healthy Family.
"Our whole family has enjoyed good health since we began using Dr. King's New Life Pills, three years ago," says L. A. Bartlet, of Rural Route 1, Guilford, Maine. They cleanse and tone the system in a gentle way that does you good. 25c. at W. E. Beavans' drug store.

Administrator's Notice.
Having this day qualified as administrator of the late Henry W. Collins, I hereby notify all persons having claims against the estate of the said Henry W. Collins to present same to me on or before the 15th day of December, 1909, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate settlement. This the 15th day of December, 1908.

JNO. A. COLLINS,
Admr. of Henry W. Collins.
R. C. Dunn, Attorney.

Would Mortgage the Farm.
A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Buckden's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw: one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c. at W. E. Beavans' drug store.

North Carolina.
Halifax County.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE.
By virtue of power conferred upon me by law and by that mortgage make and executed to T. L. Hamill, my intestate, on the 19th day of June, 1899, by Riddick Burnett and wife, Lucy Burnett, of Washington, D. C., and at the request of H. L. Haswell, the legal holder of the note therein described, I shall on the 9th day of January, 1909, sell for cash to the highest bidder at public auction in the Town of Enfield, the following described lot or parcel of land, lying, being, and situate in the Town of Enfield, County of Halifax, and State of North Carolina and bounded on the North, East, and South by the Burnett or Alsop land and on the West by McDaniel Street, containing one acre more or less.
Time of sale: 1:00 o'clock P. M. Place of sale: in front of post office.
This the 8th day of December, 1908.
ADA R. HASWELL,
R. C. Dunn, Attorney.