

LIFE'S LITTLE JESTS

ONE-TO-TEN

"Now you got to keep away from this guy," the second whispered into the cauliflowered ear of his principal.

A cockney couple visited a picture gallery and stood for some time gazing at a picture entitled, "Hawking in the Olden Days."

"Fancy speeding like that! Don't you know it will cost you your driving license?"

OR ELSEWHERE

"What is a living wage?" "That depends." "On what?" "Whether you live in a cottage or an automobile."

The teacher was emphasizing that the truth should be told at all times and nothing should ever be said which was not strictly true.

A bit later she asked Peggy if she had written her homework.

Little Girl—Mother, you know that old vase you said has been handed down from generation to generation?

Worse and More of It "You say my client kicked you in the face?" the attorney for the defense asked the complainant.

Disturbing the Home "Do you think a woman's place is in the home?"

Hurry Up "I think marriages are really made in heaven, don't you?"

THE HABIT "Wife—Doesn't it worry you dreadfully to owe so many bills you cannot pay?"

A Place to Star "Hubby—if you don't stop nagging me I'm going to tell you a few things."

Hubby—You might begin by telling me why you called me "Baby" in your sleep last night.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Spreading It On

NOT AN ACCIDENT

An Arizona cowboy applied at a navy recruiting station for enlistment, says the Air Station News.

SLIGHT DIFFERENCE

"Luxurious tastes De Riche has. He has a Carot in his office." "That's nothing. I have a whistler in mine."

Swank

"Anne Mae," said the mistress of the house finally giving way to curiosity, "I noticed you have been taking our empty grapefruit hulls home with you. What do you do with them?"

Tough Stuff

Doctor (to druggist)—Say, you made a terrible mistake in putting up that prescription for old Mrs. Waters. It's lucky she's alive. I know I wrote it correctly. What have you to say for yourself?"

Got the Air

Facetious One—Why so gloomy, old chap? Gloomy One—Just heard my uncle has cut me out of his will. He's altered it five times in the last two years.

MAYBE SO, MAYBE SO

Seeking Neighborly Assistance "Your dog—" "That's my wife's dog."

Hard Lines "Why so gloomy?" "Ah! These desperate times get my goat."

Wasted Liaps "Tourist—White man glad to see red man. White man hopes big chief feeling top-hole this morning."

Two for One Game Warden—Look here, this is a last year's hunting license.

All Around the House

Something quite different in the way of ash trays are charming little oak leaves made of hammered silver.

Grease spots may be removed from tan shoes with gasoline. Wet sponge with gasoline (keep away from fire), rub over spots, dry and polish.

If cake is to be baked a long time it is wise to line the bottom of pan with oiled paper.

If cake mixture has been made too stiff do not add more milk to it. Beat an egg and add gradually until mixture is of desired thickness.

When making tomato bisque dissolve a pinch of soda in the milk used in bisque and there will be less danger of it curdling.

To prevent shoulder straps slipping off, cut a piece of tape long enough to hold straps. Sew one end of tape to inside of dress on shoulder seam.

To remove glass stoppers from bottles, take a piece of twine, double and put it around neck of bottle twice.

Custard pies should be baked in a hot oven for the first ten minutes. The crust will then be set and filling will not soak through crust.

Soot water is excellent for plants. Put soot taken from chimneys, furnaces and stoves into a bag and suspend bag in a pail of water.

There is nothing like a beautiful piece of red lacquer to give the note of color that lifts a room from its state of former drabness.

Though sorrow must come, where is the advantage of rushing to meet it? It will be time enough to grieve when it comes; meanwhile, hope for better things.

Smiles He Knew Pat Mike—I haven't seen my Uncle Pat for ten years. I wonder what he's been doing all that time.

Nothing Gained Math Teacher—Now we find that x is equal to zero. Student—Gee! All that work for nothing.—American Boy.

Lost at Sea Pilot—What is it? Observer—An SOS. They want to know if we have seen anything of a pink and gray parrot.

A Good Reader Mistress—Mary, how could you sit there reading while baby is crying so hard? Nurse—It doesn't disturb me a bit, ma'am.—Answers Magazine.

Parliamentary "Do you think you'll be able to get the speaker's eye?" "The speaker hasn't done anything to me yet," said the athletic young member. "If he does, I won't aim for his eye. I'll aim for his jaw."

Worm—Doggont, that fool near-sighted f'reebing thinks I'm a piece of hose.

Nothing Gratis "You can't get something for nothing in this life." "That's right," replied the gloomy citizen. "If I want even a few kind words about my disposition and some hope of future success, I've got to go to a fortune teller and pay for them."
