DUPLIN TIMES

THE TIMES COVERS DUPLIN LIKE A ROOF

VOLUME 4 KENANSVILLE, N. C. THURSDAY, MAY 6, 1937 NUMBER 17

MACON CAVANAUG H IS KILLED; CHARLTON CARR BADLY HURT

Macon Cavenaugh, Jr. of Rose Hill was instantly killed and Charlton Carr, young son of Dr. R L. Carr of Rose Hill, painfully injured last Sunday night the car in which they were riding crashed in to the rear of a truck on the out skirts of Wallace.

"Bay Ray" Kornegay. young negro was also instantly killed in the collision.

The ford car belonging to Dr. Carr was being driven by young Cavenaugh. Cavenaugh and Carr were headed west from Wallace towards Farrel's store when sudden ly they crashed into a truck stopped in the middle of the highway. The truck was without lights. The Ford apparently attemped to miss the truck as it crashed into the right rear corner of the body. Cavenaugh was killed instantly. Carr was thrown from the car and when he came too he did not know what had happened. He was rushed to the Wilmington hospital where Xrays showed that no serious injury was done.

Three negros were arrested and placed in Kenansville jail. The truck was stolen by them and belonged to a Mr. Rivenbark.

Dr. Carr's Ford was literally torn to bits.

Funeral services were held for young Cavenaugh at the home of his father Macon Cavenaugh and interment made in the Cavenaugh Piney Grove Cemetray.

Berry Prices Jump Today

Strawberries took a decided jump in prices yesterday it was learned last night. Reports in Kenansville wer that quite a number of crates (24 quart crates) sold for $6.00 and better. Prices on the Rose Hill and Wallace markets were much bettr.

Warsaw, Duplin's small market, made an average this week from Monday through Thursday night of $3.80, high $5.90. The Warsaw mart has sold thrwogh today approximately 3700 crates for a season average of $3.50.

Parrish New Head Chinquapin School

E. B. Parrish, teacher in the Chinquapin high school last year was elected principal for the coming year at a meeting of the school board this week. Mr. Parrish succeeds D. D. Blanchard who goes to Wallace School.

Will Vote on School Location

Anticipating the erection of a $40,000 graded school building, patrons of the Warsaw school, both in and outside Warsaw Township will be given an opportunity to vote on the location of the building.

There is some question as to whether the new structure should be located at the present graded school building site or on the edge of town near the high school building.

An election on the matter will be held Saturday May 15th, it was announced by J. C. Thompson chairman of the Warsaw school board.

Kenansville Re-elects Officrs

In a quiet election Tuesday Kenansville's incumbent officers were re-elected J. R. Smith, mayor and the following commissioners: W. E. Briggs, Bob Bell, Jno. A. Gavin, Early Newton and Oliver Boney.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Newton announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Edna Mae, to Dr. James Stephenson Wilson. The wedding will be solemnized in Richmond sometime in June.

Honored On 67th Birthday

The children of Mr. and Mrs. W F. Thomas of near Beulaville, gave a surprise birthday dinner in honor of their mother, April 25 1837, celebrating her 67th birthday. The dinner was served picnic style on the spacious front lawn at the home, after attending services at the church.

Those present were her daughters, Mrs. Burt Edwards, Mrs. Dot Edwards and Mrs. Dewey Ball also their husbands. There were 13 granddchildren and 6 great grandchildren present all of Duplin Co.

A brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jones of Faison, a sister, Mrs. Mary Bostic of Kinston. There were 9 neices anr nephews. Rev and Mrs. H. J. Whaley.

Tommy Gresham Re-elected Mayor Of Warsaw

J. T. (Tommy) Gresham, Jr., was re-elected mayor of Warsaw Tuesday and the following commissioners named: A. P. Cooper, W. E. Hines, W. J. Middleton, M. V. Orr and E. F. Strickland.

Rose Hill Girl Honored

The Athletic Association of Flora Macdonald College last Friday awarded the basket ball Varsity with letters and stars, and unanimously elected Miss Sue Herring of Rose Hill the best all around athlete in college. The requirements for this honor include an average passing grade; consistent adherence to the rules and regulations of the college; and exceptional skill in all sports. Miss [illegible] fellow students is summed up in the terse sentence: "She's a good sport at all times".

5 Duplin Youths See Washington

Five young people from Duplin County left Kenansville early Friday morning for a week and visit to Washington D. C. for the annual Cherry Blossom Festival. They arrived just as the double blossoms were at the height of their beauty and report a wonderful trip. The trip was made by car through Richmond Va. Those visiting Washington were, Misses Christine Whaley, Nannie Kornegay, Frosie Kornegay, Ruth Spell, and Mr. Leman Williams.

Mrs. W. D. Reynolds spent last week in Lillington with relatives while her husband made a business trip to Baltimore.

Johnson Attends School Meet

Superintendent O. P. Johnson and two members of the county board of education, W. J. Grady and John Bostic attended a meeting of County superintendents and committeemen held in Chapel Hill Wed. Supt. Johnson made a short talk before the state wide meeting.

Agriculture Officials Make Tour

Commissioner of Agriculture W. Kerr Scott, and Randall B. Etheridge, chief of the department of Agriculture's markets division left Raleigh this morning for a two day tour of the strawberry markets of Eastern North Carolina in the interest of improving packing methods.

They were joined by Robert Bier, of the United States Department of Agriculture bureau of agricultural economics, at Goldsboro.

Markets at Mt. Olive, Warsaw, Rose Hill, Wallace were visited today, (Thursday) and the Chadbourn and Tabor City markets on Friday.

Mr. Meroney At Warsaw Drug Co.

Mr. F. P. Meroney, registered druggist, began work at the Warsaw Drug Company, this week. Mr. Meroney is a native of Murphy and a graduate of the University of North Carolina school of Pharmacy.

He and Mrs. Meroney with their little child are making their home in Warsaw near the Methodist Church.

Mrs. James Is Buried in Faison

Faison.—Mrs. Alah Catherine 83, died early Tuesday morning after an illness of five years. Funeral services were held yesterday morning at the home by the Rev. A. L. Thompson, pastor of the Faison Methodist Church. Burial was in the James family cemetery.

Surviving Mrs. James are two daughters, Mrs. Mattie Edens, of whom she made her home, and Mrs. Minnie Edens, of Goldsboro. She also had two sons, Melvin and Maury James.

Misses Chrystine Whaley, Ruth Spell, Nannie Kornegay, and her sister Phronie, accompanied Lehman Williams, Pink Hill to Washington, D. C. last week-end to see the cherry blossoms. They report a splendid trip.

Dr. R. L. Carr Announces Clinics

Dr. A. H. Kerr Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, will meet the following appointments to vaccinate dogs. The usual fee as of last year will be charged the owners. All owners living in the following vicinitys will meet Dr. Kerr at Kenansville on Friday, May 7th from 9:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m., and at Warsaw Tuesday, May 11th, 9:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

Other schedules will be announced later.

Dr. Hawes Again Named Mayor of Rose Hill

Rose Hill election went off rather quietly Tuesday. Although there was keen interest in the outcome as Rose Hill is closely divided between two major parties. Dr. C. F. Hawes was re-elected mayor and the following commissioners named: E. P. Blanchard, O. A. Teachey, E. L. Lanier, J. E. Teachey and E. G. Murray.

Special Services At Pink Hill

A Mother's Day service will be held at the Pink Hill Methodist Church Sunday morning at 11 o' clock. Special music will be furnished. The pastor will preach. The public in cordially invited.

Albert Miller plead guilty to larceny and recieving. Given 2 years on the roads.

Ollinder Batchelor, charged with disturbing religious worship. Judgment continued for 2 years on payment of costs.

George Miller plead guilty to obstructing public highway. Given a 6 months road sentence, suspended for 2 years on good behavior and payment of costs.

William Moore and Dorothy (Ilorma) Moore, charged with transporting whiskey. Ordered that car be delivered to P. S. Carr Motor Company for lien they held against it.

Frank Hatin, charged with assault with deadly weapon, carrying concealed weapon and driving intoxicated. Plead guilty of carrying concealed weapon. Sentenced to road for 9 months.

[illegible] was given 4 months on the road for possession of whiskey.

Mrs. Lydie Fountain and Lillian E. Andrews were found not guilty of reckless driving and injury to personal property.

Dennis Carroll plead guilty to assault with deadly weapon, driving intoxicated and reckless driving. Given 4 months on roads, and ordered not to drive auto for 1 year. Road sentence suspended on good behavior, payment of cost and $50 to benefit of Mrs. Carr Tenbey.

Tom Smith and David Burns charged with driving while intoxicated and without proper license. Burns found not guilty. Smith given 4 months on the road and ordered not to drive auto for 2 years on good behavior, payment of cost and $50 fine and costs.

Frank Williams was given 12 months on roads for illegal transportation of whiskey for the purpose of sale.

Ila Roberts, charged with assault using motor injury given 30 days on roads, suspended on good behavior and payment of $50 fine and costs. Notice of appeal given.