WPA Builds Four Gyms Spends Over $50,000 in County

Work will be commenced tomorrow or Monday on the Chingquapin gymnasium, according to announcement made here today. The first gym built in Duplin County this year with the aid of WPA. Wallace and Warsaw gyms have been completed and the Kenansville gym is now under construction.

WPA has spent approximately $3500 on each gym in Duplin County, a total of $15,000.

This year North Carolina has built 19 gyms with the aid of WPA and our county has received four of them.

In addition to aiding in building gyms in our county it has used about $14,000 in Federal money on school building repairs. Superintendent Johnson stated that it would have been absolutely impossible to put our school building in the shape they are today without the aid of WPA.

Also WPA has spent considerable money in Duplin this year on roads and sewing rooms. It is safely estimated that by the end of 1937 Duplin will have received more than $50,000 through the WPA.
