

NEWS

Mrs. J. K. Needham, of ...
 Mrs. H. F. Byrd is spending this week with relatives on a house party at Carolina Beach.
 Mrs. H. C. Freythe, Sr., is the guest of her daughters, Mrs. McCarty and Mrs. Haywood Long in Raleigh this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Saunders and Earl Saunders visited friends at Myrtle Beach last Friday.

 Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ralbe took their baby to Goldsboro for treatment last Friday.
 Circle No. 2 of the Presbyterian Woman's Auxiliary met Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. T. Hines.
 Mrs. A. H. Witherington conducted the devotional and Mrs. T. H. Latham had charge of the program. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.
 Circle No. 1 met Monday afternoon with Miss Sallie Hill. Mrs. Frank Faison had charge of the program and Mrs. F. W. Oakes had the Bible study. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

 The Methodist Sunday School enjoyed a picnic at White Lake last Thursday afternoon. After enjoying the water a most bountiful supper was spread.
 Mrs. J. J. Gibbons, Miss Bettie Gibbons and Joyce Gibbons, Jr., of Wilson visited relatives in Faison last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirkland of Littleton, Dr. Gordon Smith of Thomasville and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Warsaw were in town last Monday en route to the funeral of their uncle Mr. Mort Bell of Sampson County.

 Miss Mary Ina Bailey of Wilson visited her brother Milton Bailey last week-end.
 Miss Martha Faison and Mrs. L. H. Hines entertained at a lovely four course luncheon last Friday at the home of Miss Faison. It was in honor of their cousins, Mrs. Winifred Faison Holt and Miss Francis Faison of Birmingham, Ala. Guests enjoying the delightful occasion were: Mrs. J. E. Faison, Mrs. J. K. Morton, Mrs. H. T. Ray, Mrs. A. R. Hicks, Mrs. C. Adams, Miss Ruth Faison, Mrs. C. E. Weatherly, Mrs. W. L. Hicks and Rev. and Mrs. T. W. DeVane.
 E. S. Graver of the School of Religion of Duke University, began a Cokesbury Class at the Methodist Church on Sunday evening. The course being taught is "Religion, Its Mission and Meaning."

Miss Annie House of Calypso, visited in the home of Mrs. J. E. Swinson Sunday afternoon.
 The Sunbeam Society will meet in the home of Fannie Lou Swinson next Saturday afternoon Aug. 14 at 3:00 o'clock. Hope all the members will attend and have a wonderful program.

Results of such a meeting are far-reaching," the club leader said. "Class work in practical homemaking and farming as taught at the Short Course has automatically converted the returning delegates into leaders. In such a way, the Short Course reaches practically every club member either directly or indirectly."
 Harrill stated that the course, which cracked all attendance records this year, was one of the most successful ever held. Nearly 950 girls and boys from 85 counties were enrolled.

Elisabeth Randall, Cleveland, won a gold medal for the best individual record among girls. Helen Whitlock, Stanly County, and Marguerite Green, Durham County, were second and third place winners.
 The Durham County dairy demonstration team, champions of the State, will represent North Carolina at the national dairy show, Columbus, Ohio, this fall.
 Superphosphate, along with limestone, is proving its worth with sweet clover in Transylvania County. Where these materials were not used on the farm of J. B. Jones, he secured no clover.

Tobacco Selling High

in

WHITEVILLE

Most Satisfactory Opening in Many Years

BRING YOUR NEXT LOAD TO

Star Warehouse

for Top Market Prices

Moore and Daniel, Owners and Proprietors

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED—

Friends have received the following announcement:
 Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fletcher Pepper announce the marriage of their sister, Margaret Nell Parkin, to Mr. Edmond Randolph Codwise, Tuesday the third of August, nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, in the City of Washington.
 Miss Parkin is the niece of the late C. S. Hines. She has been a frequent visitor in Faison, and a host of relatives and friends have received the announcement of her marriage with the keenest interest. They will be at home after the tenth of August at Gaithersburg, Maryland.

BEAR MARSH

Miss Abbie Vause of Summerlin Cross Road spent the day in the home of Hilda Davis Sunday.
 Miss Wilma Dixon of Greenville was home last weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dixon.
 Mrs. Johnnie Pridden spent last Wednesday with Miss Nellie Sasser of Thunder Swamp.
 Miss Anna Brock, of Warsaw, is spending this week with relatives here.
 Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Stephens and daughter, Laura Gordon, and their guest Mrs. Freeman from Charlotte spent awhile with Miss

SAYS SHORT COURSE WILL BRING RESULTS

L. R. Harrill, State 4-H Club leader, is of the opinion that the influence of the recent Short Course held at State College for

Big Brick Warehouse Fairmont

We are glad to say to our friends in Duplin and adjoining counties that our OPENING SALE AUGUST 10th was the most satisfactory that we have ever had in all our many years in the Warehouse business. We did not have a tag turned during the entire day.

We want to invite you to come to see us, and promise you the best in warehouse service that can be had.

With Walter Carter and Joe Pell looking after your interests, backed up by W. J. Lovill and A. A. Fowles, two of the best known salesmanagers, you can rest assured that you will be well taken care of.

BIG BRICK is one of the largest and best lighted warehouses in the Belt.

And remember FAIRMONT leads all Border Markets in pounds and averages.

BIG BRICK WAREHOUSE

J. W. Lovill, A. A. Fowler, J. A. Pell

FAIRMONT

THE OLD RELIABLE

Best Opening In History Of Market

OFFICIAL FIGURES:

894,374 Pounds For $237,662.03

AVERAGE $26.57

No Guess Work - Nothing Estimated

Not A Basket Rejected

BRING YOUR TOBACCO TO

Fairmont

You'll Like the Way FAIRMONT Warehousemen pull and push to get the High Dollar for Each and Every Basket of tobacco Offered for Sale.

FAIRMONT TOBACCO BOARD of TRADE