(Intended for last week) — Mr. H. D. Maxwell and Mr. M. L. Grady made a trip to Wilson last week to see Mr. R. G. Maxwell. They also went by to see his family at the old home town. Mr. Maxwell thinks that "H. D." understands "rigging up" the fixtures for a man with a broken leg, and hopes he will come again soon.

The Young Peoples Club and their friends of Duplin and Lenoir County, had a picnic down at Maxwell's Mill Pond Saturday afternoon. Supper was served and they enjoyed swimming and boat riding. Mr. Maxwell has everything arranged very nicely and convenient for his friends to enjoy their outings. It's an ideal place for picnics and weiner roasts. The place of the famous Maxwell's Meal.
