AUXILIARY MEETS

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Grove Presbyterian Church was held on Monday afternoon, Dec. 26th, at 3:30 in the home of the president, Mrs. John A. Gavin. No program was given due to the fact that it had been presented on a previous Sunday in the form of a candlelight vesper service in the church. After the opening devotional a short business session was held.

WILLIAMS - WHALEY

On Thursday morning, December 23, at 9:30 o'clock in Grove Presbyterian Church of Kenansville, Miss Christine Whaley, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Whaley of Kenansville, became the bride of Lehman Guy Williams, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Zack Williams of Pink Hill. The Rev. F. L. Goodman officiated using the ring ceremony.

The pulpit was bounded with ivy, long leaf pine and floor baskets of white lilies interspersed with standards of white cathedral candles.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. W. D. Reynolds, pianist and Miss Erma Williams, soloist who sweetly sang "At Dawning" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." The traditional bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used as the processional and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the recessional. As the vows were being spoken Mrs. Reynolds played very softly Liebestraum.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Norman Anderson of Mt. Olive. Her dress was green crepe with harmonizing accessories and she wore a shoulder corsage of Briarcliff-roses.

The ushers were Milton Whaley, brother of the bride and Littleton Maxwell, cousin of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, M. J. Whaley, was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Lewis Williams of Pink Hill, a brother of the groom. The bride was becomingly attired in a smart du-bonnet suit with a natural fox collar and wore iced-blue accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of talisman roses tied with Talisman ribbon.

After the ceremony the couple left on a wedding trip. When they return, they will make their home near Warsaw.
