aing or Mining?

DILAMB, D. D. IN THE PROGRESSIVE PARMER

I year sell or farm it? John Jones settled upon a mined it. He never put anything back. Erecy bit

I food he extracted by the one-crop method, and by weaking away the topsoil. In his lifetime he als min as nearly worthless condition as is human-

Ham Smith, had the idea that his farm was must put raw materials and labor and take Through the years of his life he dwelt in, the years of his life he dwelt in heirs better than he had found it. amper slone trying to get every possible thrill and are old at 25. Others conserve their energies and are Burning the candle at both ends is bad for the candle at Millay wrate:

andle burns at both ends;
If not but the night;
It my foes, and oh, my friends—

The a lovely light!

If we soon run ragged. We cannot use our bodies and without wearing them out long before their time, then our faculties through rest and recreation.

There are taking energy from our brains without connect in the manual communication, said that he has to work for as bours in research to prepare his 15-minute broadcast in research to prepare his 15-minute broadcast icher we could make our thought life if we took a day to enrich ourselves with new ideas, our souls become unless we constantly add to them i refreshment. Henry Ward Beecher made it a prac-le as ocean vacation to Europe each summer. He are looking out over the water, his heart in rapport of the world. He would come back to his work to a fine young priest as we rode toward Glacier Park, were out with sharing my love and sympathy with dreds of parishioners. My soul is dry. I'm going out as to think it all over and pary in the presence of the

In line in the Paalma which always glues me to real-up mine eyes unto the hills. From whence cometh help cometh from the Lord, who made heaven and must have been in the friends of Jesus something and as lacking. They had been mining their hearts to others and had forgotten themselves. He said: lives apart into a desert place and rest awhile."

al thing for each person to have a place where he a moment of quiet reflection. It jarnishes the with a sense of newness. During my college days, boys who met together a few minutes each day a and talk together. I am sure that not one of us may be kept fresh, pure, and beautiful despite the may happen to us who try to cultivate rather apart into a desert place and rest available."

Into for each person to have a place where he moment of quiet reflection. It aiminates the a sense of newness. During my college days, as whe met together a few minutes ceach ago dath together. I am sure that not one of us to did us. In the together of the minutes can be added to the paper to us who try to cultivate rather the y happen to us who try to cultivate rather the saw Jesus from dar, he ran and worshipped him." Here at least was recognition but possibly with hostile intent. "And crying out with a loud voice, he astity. What have I to do we with a loud voice, he astity. What have I to do we with these, Jesus, thou Son of the Moti High food! I silyen thee by a few himself the company of the terms as the Bon of God, and seems to recognize the identity of today, marker of the terms of the proper terms of the terms of the terms of the terms of the ter sin and bring as line of peace.

3. The Might of Money: What did it cost to save this poor man with an unclean spirit! Two thousand hogs. Last week we shipped eight hundred out of Warssew and considered it good business, and it was. Here Jesus permits the destruction of two thousand he the demons leave their into these hogs, and

Tuscarora Scout Camp

N. John St. Old Rice Mill Site

12-31-49t

DELIVER TO OUR YARD ON SOUTH JOHN STREET
Wayne Agricultural Works, Inc.

EULAVILLE VICTORIOUS

Beulaville's quint and sentet were victorious over Calypso in a same played here last Tuesday light

Less Monthly Discomfort

night.

The quints won over their opponents with a score of 28-10. Merer dropped in 11 points for Beulaville. Parker was runner-up with 10. Strickland scored 6 points for Colypso.

The sextet won with a score of 37-13. D. Kenendy scored 16 points for Beulaville. Bostic was runner-up with 7. Davis dropped a 6 points for Celypso. Coach carget's sextet remains undefeat-

M. L. LANTER, Executor of the Estate of James Lanier, Sr. Mar. 31, 8t, ROW.

Car Load Enterpris W(0)(0)(0)

CAN THE DE

UNITURE

Arriving Daily

Quinn-McGower

WARSAW, H. C.

Funeral Directors and Embalmer Ambulance San

Day or I DAY PHONE 2-44-1

SCALOFO CHELLES

tal line of heavy and family presentes, barries