Mrs. Peirce Hostess To Club

Mrs. J. M. Peirce was the most delightful hostess last Tuesday afternoon, when she entertained her bridge club and additional guests at her home on Hill St.

The receiving hall and living rooms, where three tables were in play, were attractively decorated with dogwood, wisteria and iris.

At the conclusion of several interesting progressions, Mrs. R. H. Best, Jr., and Mrs. Paul Berry received Defense Stamps for scoring high and low, respectively. Mesdames J. P. Harmon and Warren A. Smith, guests of the club were remembered with handkerchiefs.

During the games Mrs. Peirce served iced Coco Colas and at the end a delicious chicken salad course with hot cheese biscuits and coffee were served to Mesdames Best, Berry, Harmon, Smith, J. C. Thompson, R. D. Johnson H. L. Stevens, Jr., Walker Stevens, R. E. Wall, Ralph Best, A. J. Jenkins and L. B. Huie.

U. D. C. Meeting

The James Kenan Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. B. Best with Mesdames Daisy Jordan C. F. Carroll and J. C. Brock hostesses.

The Chapter colors of red and white were carried out in the decorations of red and white tulips, candy tuff and spirea.

The president, Mrs. Henry L. Stevens, Jr., opened the meeting with the singing of "Carolina" and immediately following the business Mrs. C. A. Womack discussed the "Jefferson 200th Anniversary" and Mrs. R. D. Johnson read an interesting paper on the "Thomas Jefferson Memorial", which was recently unveiled in Washington.

To conclude the program Mrs. Stevens led a historical quiz after which the hostesses served tempting sandwiches, pecan rolls, pickles and coffee.

With the Sick

Mr. J. D. Swinson continues ill at his home on Hill St.

Friends of G. S. Best will be interested to learn that he returned Sunday to his home from Whispering Cedars, at Goldsboro, where he was a patient for four weeks.

Mr. J. C. Miller returned to his home Sunday from James Walker Hospital, where he underwent a major operation three weeks ago, and is getting along as well as could be expected. He was accompanied home by his brother William Miller of Kinston.

Service Flag Unveiled at Methodist Church Last Sunday Morning

Warsaw Methodist Church honored on Sunday morning the men and the women who are in their country's service. This part of the program began with the declaration of allegiance to the Christian flag and to the flag of the United States of America by the entire audience. This was led by Joe Surratt, Jr. Then the flag was unveiled by Misses Helen West and Katherine Bowen. The former has three uncles and one first cousin represented on the flag. The latter substituted for Margaret Wiggs who was called away on account of the death of her grandmother. She has four brothers and one sister represented by stars on that flag. Mr. R. F. Wadkins, chairman of the Board of Stewards, presented the flag in a few well-chosen words. The pastor, Rev. C. T. Thrift, accepted the flag on behalf of the Warsaw Methodist Church. Then the roll was called of those in Uncle Sam's service and as each name was called the members of their families who were present were asked to stand. The flag carries stars for the following who are members of Warsaw Methodist Church or Sunday School: R. T. Blackburn, U. S. A.; Woodrow Blackburn, U. S. A.; Eves Boney, U. S. A.; William H. Carroll, U. S. A.; William J. Costin U. S. N.; David Currie, U. S. A.; Mary Carlton, U. S. N.; Arad W. Grady, U. S. A.; Jesse G. Garner, U. S. A.; John D. Godbolt, U. S. N.; E. B. Hinman, U. S.
