Local Volunteer Spotters Enjoy Dinner At Hut

One of the most enjoyable events held in Warsaw recently was the dinner Friday night, Oct. 22 in the Legion Home for the observers of the Army Ground Air Corps.

K. J. Jones, former Chief Observer of the Warsaw post, but more recently District Chief, was master of ceremonies and the Rev. G. van Stephens, Baptist pastor, gave the invocation.

Following the delicious chicken and turkey dinner, Mrs. George D. Bennett, present Chief Observer gave a report at the Observers and their served at the post. Jack Glisson, Assistant Chief Observer, presented diplomas to the post observers who recently completed the 250 hour "Airplane Recognition Class", which he taught.

The Legion Lounge was attractively decorated in the patriotic colors, red, white and blue. The banquet tables were arranged to form a "U" and each was centered with flags.

Warsaw Rotary Club Holds Big Meeting

The Warsaw Rotarians held their regular weekly meeting last Thursday at the rotary hall. Every member except one was present. Guests were Rev. Vann Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Britt.

HOME IMPROVEMENT AWARD President Earl Wall presented the bronze trophy to Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Britt. Their names will be engraved on the plaque, and they will keep it until the next home improvement contest which will come in the spring.

Rev. Stephens Addresses Club Rev. Stephens topic was "The Appalling Increase in Juvenile Delinquency", a matter of great interest to this service club as well as to the public.

Cemetery Clean Up Week Next week, Nov. 1-8, the Rotary Club is asking all lot owners in the Warsaw Cemetery to do what they can towards cleaning and beautifying their property there. If the trash is placed in the drives, the town truck will pick it up.

Rotarians Give To War Relief The Rotary members voted to give through the club their individual contributions to the United War Relief Fund to Mr. A. L. Cavanaugh, Chairman. At the town meeting, Monday, Oct. 25, Mr. Cavanaugh announced the total to be $200.00 for the club.
