Women, Here's A Way To Reduce

Members of the WAC's can prepare to dispense with pills, girdles, and reducing diets when they arrive at a WAC camp for training.

So if you join the WAC, here is a gentle hint, prepare to have that slump in your shoulders improved and those aching arches cured.

You will be transformed into a shining model of a strengthened, coordinated, stabilized specimen of American womanhood.

Since the demands of war are numerous and varied, each WAC must be ready to take her place alongside our fighting men despite long hours and tedious work.

If she is not fit, she will fall by the wayside. If she is fit for duty in the field, she will have definitely improved her posture, resistance, and in general be alert, efficient and dependable.

Carefully planned exercises in physical training in the Wac creates women ready to "take it". Our Wacs are healthy and fit, you may be sure of that.
