MISS STEPHENS WED TO MR FREEMAN IN CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY

The Warsaw Baptist Church was the scene of a lovely wedding Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Miss Evelyn Gray Stephens became the bride of Pfc. William Harrison Freeman, USA Medical Corps, of Leaksville.

The bride's father, the Rev. G. Van Stephens, pastor of the church, officiated, using the beautiful double ring ceremony of the Baptist ritual. The vows were spoken before a background of Southern pines and numerous seven-branched candelabra, holding cathedral tapers, entwined with smilax. On either side of the altar were floor standards holding arrangements of white gladioli and fern, flanked by the Christian and the United States flags. The family pews were marked with white gladioli and satin ribbon.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. C. J. Brown, of Warsaw, pianist, and Pfc. William Shields, of Winston-Salem, vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Brown played "Romance" by Zitterbart, "Serenade" by Schubert and "A Dream" by Bartlett and Pfc. Shields sang "Carrie Jacobs Bond's "I Love You Truly" and "Because" by D'Hardelot. During the ceremony "The Rosary" by Nevin and "Liebestraum" by Liszt was played and as a benediction prayer, Pfc. Shields sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Mallotte. The traditional wedding marches from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were used.

The bridegroom had as his best man Pfc. Homer Hobbs, of Winston-Salem. Ushers were Emmett Roark, of Shephardstown, W. Va., brother-in-law of the bride, Pfc. Clark Fisher, Heide Davis and Henry Hill, USA Medical Corps, Bowman Gray, School of Medicine of Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Emmett Roark, of Shephardstown, W. Va., and Warsaw, was her sister's matron of honor, and she wore a white starched lace gown over taffeta fashioned with a full skirt, sweetheart neck, three-quarter length sleeves and hat to match. She carried a Parisian bouquet of roses, baby's breath, and daisies tied with rainbow colored ribbon.

Miss Frances Stephens, sister of the bride, was maid of honor; and she was gowned in pink marquisette made with sweetheart neck, three-quarter length sleeves, fitted bodice and full gathered skirt trimmed with self ruffles. She wore a hat of matching material and carried an arm bouquet tied with blue tulle.

The bridesmaids, Misses Elaine and Barbara Freeman, sisters of the bridegroom, of Leaksville, Helen Sigmon and Laura Harrison of Winston-Salem, wore blue dresses similar to that of the maid of honor. Identical headdresses and carried the same flowers tied with pink satin ribbons. Each wore a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bride.

Little Miss Peggy Garner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Garner, of Raleigh was the ring bearer and she wore a yellow dress identical to the maids and carried the rings in the heart of a calla lily.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Raymond Bagwell, of Raleigh, wore a wedding gown of shimmering nylon, hand made from a parachute, originally styled. It was fashioned with a sweetheart neck, fitted waist outlined with Chantilly lace and self ruffles, buttoned down the back with small self covered buttons, long sleeves ending in calla lily points over the wrists, and full skirt extending into a long train. The full-length veil of bridal illusion was worn with a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid and traditional shower. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Stephens, mother of the bride, wore a dress of white roneine crepe and picture hat to match, with white accessories. The groom's mother wore a blue crepe dress with navy accessories and each wore a shoulder corsage of pink roses.

Mesdames R. D. Johnson and Henry L. Stevens, Jr., were mistresses to the ceremony.

After the ceremony a small reception was given by the parents of the bride for members of the bridal party and out of town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Bennett greeted the guests and introduced them to the wedding party. In the living room were arrangements of gladioli and fern. The bride's table, lace covered and holding bridal tapers, was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and Army groom. After the bride and groom had cut the first slices of cake, Miss Annie Kate Powell, of Warsaw, served cake and Mrs. O. J. Beavers, aunt of the bride, of Tallahassee, Ala., poured punch.

Later in the evening the couple left on a wedding trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina. For traveling the bride wore a Heavens blue jersey dress with white accessories, using the orchid from her bouquet for her corsage.

Mrs. Freeman is the attractive blonde daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. G. Van Stephens, of Warsaw. She was graduated from Oxford High School and Averett College, Danville, Va., and finished her course of study from the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, in May 1944.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Freeman, of Leaksville. He was graduated from Wake Forest College in 1941 and is now a third year student at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem.

Pfc. and Mrs. Freeman will remain in Winston-Salem until September when Pfc. Freeman will receive his degree, after which they will make their home in Patterson, N. J., where he will intern in surgery.

MISS ROSA PECORA WED SEMAN J. T. BOSEMAN.

Miss Rosa Lucile Pecora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silvio Pecora, of Bowden became the bride of First Class Petty Officer J. T. Boseman, Jr., USNR, son of J. T. Boseman, Sr., and the late Mrs. Boseman, of Rocky Mount, in an impressive and beautiful ceremony Tuesday afternoon June 20, at 3:00 o'clock in the St. Mary's Catholic Church in Goldsboro.

The wedding was given by the parents of the bride for members of the bridal party and out of town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Bennett greeted the guests and introduced them to the wedding party. In the living room were arrangements of gladioli and fern. The bride's table, lace covered and holding bridal tapers, was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and Army groom. After the bride and groom had cut the first slices of cake, Miss Annie Kate Powell, of Warsaw, served cake and Mrs. O. J. Beavers, aunt of the bride, of Tallahassee, Ala., poured punch.

Later in the evening the couple left on a wedding trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina. For traveling the bride wore a Heavens blue jersey dress with white accessories, using the orchid from her bouquet for her corsage.

Mrs. Freeman is the attractive blonde daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. G. Van Stephens, of Warsaw. She was graduated from Oxford High School and Averett College, Danville, Va., and finished her course of study from the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, in May 1944.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Freeman, of Leaksville. He was graduated from Wake Forest College in 1941 and is now a third year student at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem.

Pfc. and Mrs. Freeman will remain in Winston-Salem until September when Pfc. Freeman will receive his degree, after which they will make their home in Patterson, N. J., where he will intern in surgery.

Mrs. R. A. Williams, of Faison, organist, played a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony and the wedding march from the third act of Lohengrin by Wagner was played for the professional and Mendelssohn's march from "Midsummer Night's Dream" as the recessional.

Lyman Boseman, brother of the groom, of Rocky Mount, was best man and Miss Christine Lane, of Bowden attended as maid of honor. She wore a gown of yellow net and carried a bouquet of mixed summer flowers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Silvio Pecora, wore a wedding gown of white satin made with sweetheart neck, fitted bodice and sleeves coming to points at the wrists. She wore a bridal veil of illusion and carried a bouquet of white carnations and showered with stephanotis.

Following the wedding the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at their home at Bowden. The home was beautifully decorated with white gladioli and clematis and colors of white and green. The lace covered bridal table was graced by a three tier wedding cake topped with bride and groom, which was cut by R. A. Williams, long friend of the family.

Mrs. Boseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pecora, was graduated from Warsaw High School, Campbell College, where she was May Queen in 1940, and E. C. T. C., Greenville, 1942. For two years she taught at Belarthur.

First Class Petty Officer Boseman, of the Navy Air Corps, was graduated from Rocky Mount High School and Campbell College and studied at State College before entering the Navy.

They will be at home in Pocomoke, Md.
