MISS MORROW IS WED TO REV. CRAFT IN LOCAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Old historic Grove Presbyterian Church was the scene of another pretty wedding here in Kenansville, N. C., on Monday night, June 26, 1944, at 8 o'clock, when Miss Madeline Morrow became the bride of Mr. Allen Craft. The Rev. John Morrow, father of the bride was the officiating minister. A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Ralph Carlton, pianist, Mrs. Walter Stroud, soloist, and Mrs. E. ma W. Meadows, violinist.

The bride entered the room on the arm of Mr. R. V. Wells, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a floor length model of white satin fashioned with a round neck and leg o'mutton sleeves, pointed at the finger tips; fitted bodice, full skirt and long flowing train. Her veil of illusion was cap-shaped and was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible with satin streamers and Gypsophelia centered with an orchid.

Miss Ella Theresa Gooding, the Maid of Honor was the bride's only attendant. She wore a pink dress of Mouseline de Soir and lace and carried a mixed bouquet of flowers.

The best man was Irvine Mitchell of Southport, N. C. The ushers were Richard Gammon of Fayetteville, N. C., and Gower Crosswell of Williamston.

Mrs. Morrow, mother of the bride, was gowned in a blue silk-jersey and wore a shoulder corsage of roses. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding reception for the happy young couple was held in the home of R. V. Wells, ruling member of the local church, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jerritt greeted the guests at the front door and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gavin presented them to the receiving line composed of the bride's family. Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Craft left for a wedding trip to the western part of the state, where they planned to stop at Lake Junalaska for several days. Upon their return, they will make their home in Kenansville during the summer but will go to Richmond, Va., early this fall.

Mrs. Craft, a petite blond, is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Morrow of Picayune, Miss. She attended Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., and taught school several years in her native state. Mr. Craft is the son of the Edwin B. Crafts of Kosciusko, Miss. He received his education at Southwestern University, Memphis, Tenn., and The Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Va. He has been supply pastor of the Grove, Beulaville, and Hallsville group of Presbyterian Churches for the past two summers.

Among the other compliments paid the bridal couple during the past week was a cake cutting held on Sunday, June 25, 1944 from seven to eight o'clock on the attractive lawn of the John A. Gavins.

Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Gooding were hosts on Monday at a delightful luncheon for the bridal party and out of town guests.

Joint Hostesses

Mesdames D. S. Williams and Andrew Scott also Miss Lois Williamson were joint hostesses here on last Wednesday night at 8:15 when they entertained about 40 guests from Kenansville and Faison. Bridge was played at nine tables. The hostesses did not play. They were assisted in serving a sweet course by Mrs. G. E. Jones. Mrs. J. M. Brock received high score prize and Mrs. Daisy Craven second high score. Mrs. Louise Wells Mitchell was given the Consolation.
