Southern Farm Summary

Georgia-Florida flue cured tobacco prices for medium to better grades ended third week sales at the highest levels of the season.

but inferior grades showed a decline of $1.00 to $3.00 from a week ago. In South Carolina, the price moved upward for the week with averages by grades gaining from $1.00 to $8.00.

Supplies of hogs in Ga., Fla., and Ala., were larger this week, with more local hogs moving to plants as well as increased rail shipments from outside points.

Cattle receipts were somewhat lighter and prices steady. In Ga., Ala., and Fla., cutter and common steers and heifers brought $6.70 to $9.30, while at Nashville, cutter to low medium grassers were $7.50 to 12.50.

Supplies of live poultry were plentiful. Markets were strong in Fla., Ken. and Miss. for fryers but weak in Tenn. N. C. and Ga. where there were heavy offerings. Price ranged from .25 to 28 1-2 cents. Eggs were steady to firm.

Large Grade A from 42 in N. C. to .50 in Fla.

Cotton prices continued to advance, gaining about 35 points during the week.
