FIGHTING JUDGE WALTER CLARK

"What a benefit it would be to our nation if every young lawyer, yes, and every young minister would read this book."—The Methodist Christian Advocate, Chicago, Ill.

"It is one of the best and most interesting biographies I have ever read."—C. C. Wyche, United States District Judge, Columbia, S. C.

JOHN J. PARKER, United States Circuit Judge. "The style is splendid and the subject matter is interesting from the beginning to the end. Every lawyer in North Carolina and every other citizen of the state interested in its history ought to read (this) book."

Bernard W. Spillman, in Charity and Children. "... both easy to read and full of much of the history of the state. Judge Brooks has rendered a real service in giving us this book."

"It is a thoroughly fine piece of work and deserves a place among our great legal biographies."—John W. Davis, Former Ambassador to the Court of St. James.

"This to me, is one of the most fascinating biographies of recent years. It is a North Carolina miniature painted by an artist. The clear non-technical, non-legal style carries the reader from one dramatic incident to another in the life of a man whose influence as soldier, advocate, chief justice of his state and champion of reform will last for ages."—B. R. Lacy, Union Seminary Review.

"We are grateful to Mr. Brooks for recalling to our attention one of the half dozen greatest jurists and one of the most interesting figures of the last generation."—Henry Commager, New York Herald Tribune.

INVITATION TO SPEAK

Miss Annie Mae Kenion has recently received an invitation from the Fayetteville State Teacher's College, requesting her to speak to the Senior Class.

Miss Kenion received her B. S. degree from the same college in 1941, and received a more recent degree (M. A.) in Education from Atlanta University in the Summer School Session of 1944. She has also been given a Graduate Elementary Teachers Certificate, and a Graduate Elementary Principal's Certificate by the State Dept. of Public Instruction, Raleigh, N. C.

Miss Kenion is looking forward to beginning work leading toward her Ph. D. in Education next summer. She has not definitely decided as to what school she will attend.

Farmers cannot afford to go in and out of the livestock business every time the wind changes. Red cedars for Christmas trees is a profitable crop for idle lands.

IN THE LAND OF THE TREE

A mopping-up party was clearing the last hold-outs from the last dugouts on one of the Marshall Islands. As the fuse was set to discharge the demolitions, a Jap came running out with hands held high. "Don't shoot," he said. "I've got a brother in Brooklyn." He finally convinced authorities that he does have a brother in Brooklyn.

CHOCOLATE-COATED CRISIS

The dive-bomber, because of a broken oil line, was forced down in the South Pacific, miles from anywhere. The radioman-gunner broke out a life-raft, and just before the plane sank, he looked around to see how the pilot was faring during the critical moments. "There he was," said the radioman-gunner, "climbing out of the plane with the plotting board in one hand and a box of candy in the other."

BUILD A BETTER MOUSE TRAP—

At a South Pacific base, a Marine cracked his watch crystal. With no watch repair facilities at hand, the Leatherneck momentarily faced the fact that he would be without the use of his time-piece. But browsing through the post exchange he got an idea. He bought an amber-colored, transparent plastic cigarette case and with his pocket-knife fashioned a new crystal that fit his watch perfectly. Now he's swamped with orders from his buddies.

CONFUSING BUT AMUSING

Post Office Department officials recently issued a bulletin advising Army and Navy personnel in the San Diego, Cal., area that mail was being deposited in trash boxes on street corners throughout the city. Servicemen apparently mistook the trash boxes for street letter boxes.

NAVY INTELLIGENCE

The three white stripes on a sailor's collar don't stand for anything at all. . . . The United States Navy is the only one in the world which never has had a muddie. . . . Because he uses his right hand to pipe officers over the side, the hon's is allowed to salute with his left hand. . . . The rank of commodore, recently restored to the U. S. Navy, is equivalent to a brigadier general in the Army.

JUST WARMING UP FOR MAIN EVENT

A Marine sergeant, light-heavyweight boxing champion of his artillery unit, had a battle scar when he and fellow-Leathernecks went ashore in the invasion of Saipan. He was wearing a black cap handed him by an American sailor during a few days before the attack. The sergeant won second week of November except hogs which were irregular and a few vegetables which had an easy tone, according to WFA.

Spot cotton prices advanced as market activity slackened and farmers' offerings were light.

Demand in all five-cured tobacco belts continued strong with lower quality grades in Old and Middle belts up $2.00 to $3.00 and other grades steady to slightly higher. Eastern Carolina prices were up $1.00 to $3.00 on most Green and Nondescript tobacco with other grades firm. Sales volume was down from recent weeks.

Both Southern and Midwestern cattle prices were steady to strong on slightly lighter receipts except in the Southeast. Good and Choice were active while low Common, Cutter and Canner grades were slow. Prices for low and average Medium grade steers and heifers in Ga., Fla., and Ala., were $9.00 to $11.00, in Nashville, around $10.50, and at Louisville, about $8.00 to $10.50. Total 1944 cattle and calf slaughter may reach 34 million head compared with not quite 28 million in 1943.

Hog trading continued erratic as prices varied from market to market. Representative tops were: Southeastern area $13.50 and $14.00; Nashville $14.00; Montgomery $13.50; Richmond $14.25; North Carolina stations $13.55.

Live poultry markets were strong and pressed OPA ceilings on all classes except small leg-horns and old roosters. Fresh eggs were short and prices very firm.

Fruits and vegetables were heavy in movement with prices just under ceilings.
