Tailored Ensemble Saves for Bonds

Tailored clothes are going soft, and with most becoming results. Typical of this trend is a slim, trim outfit of weskit, blouse and skirt. Its feminine touch comes from the little bow tie, bloused sleeves and skirt with unpressed pleats. Select the pattern in a local store, and buy War Bonds for Victory.

Future Farmers

Hold Banquet, Pink Hill
Dr. I. E. Miles, of State Department of Agriculture, addressed the annual banquet for vocational students and their parents at the Pink Hill gymnasium Friday night. The Future Farmers of America and the home economics classes entertained their parents at a chicken dinner.

Dr. Miles advocated a more vigorous program of soil-building during these critical years of wartime farming.
The Rev. N. P. Farrior, pastor of the Pink Hill Presbyterian Church, gave the invocation. Howard Smith and Bertha Davis welcomed the gathering and Ash Davis and Mrs. Corbet Weston responded. Durwood Mills and Lillie Gordon gave accomplishments of the vocational students. Special guests included PTA officers, school board members, former students, Treasurer A. C. Howard of the Tri-County Electric Federation, Principal Frank S. Wiley, President J. D. Paschall of the Kinston Lion's Club, and three Extension Service representatives - Farm Agent Edmund Aycock, Mrs. Sarah H. Cox, home agent, and T. B. Elliott, district supervisor. There was group singing and special music by "Spec" Sanderson and W. C. Robinson.

W M C CHECK HIRING PROCEDURES AND CEILINGS

The War Manpower Commission is moving out immediately on the Byrnes' Directive by making a check on employers as to their adherence to WMC regulations in the hiring of workers, maintaining approved employment ceilings and turnover allowances, states WMC Area Director Henry I. Shepherd for the Wilmington Administrative area.
WMC-USERS Compliance Officers are now checking employment have lost workers to other firms without proper clearance in order that Compliance Officers may locate any such workers. When workers are found to be hired in non-compliance, they will either be returned to their former employers or be required to secure proper clearance.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, & thus help build resistance for the "limes" to come. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. 25¢ 33¢
