THE POETS CORNER

Friends and Flowers In friendship and flowers The rose hold the test. It's the lonely rose bud that I like best.

Some friends will fail you When you are old and gray. But the rose will bloom along your way

If sad and lonely and friends are few, Pluck a rose and count its petals through. In each white rose holds memory of youth, In each white rose holds my love and truth.

And when I've been the last step of the way. Roses will brighten if friends will say. I'll plant roses along your way. By Lura Bostic, Beulaville.

Coffee Pudding

Leftover cake turns into handsome dessert when combined with chopped dates in coffee-flavored Cabinet Pudding. Three cups of very strong coffee are needed for the pudding.

and the sauce in this recipe. Make the brew twice as strong as you do for beverage purposes using glassed coffee where freshness and strength are held at a maximum in the vacuum-packed jar. For six servings:

- Coffee Cabinet Pudding: 1 1/2 cups strong coffee brew, 1/2 cups bottled milk (sealed), 2 eggs, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon cloves, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 tablespoons melted, white fat, 1 cup finely chopped dates, 2 egg-cubed leftover cake. Combine freshly brewed coffee and scalded milk. Beat eggs. Add sugar, spices, salt, the cooled coffee and milk mixture and the melted, white fat to the beaten eggs. Place alternate layers of cake and milk cubes in greased 1 1/2 qt. casserole, topping with dates. Pour liquid mixture over all. Bake in slow oven (300 deg F) for 1 1/2 hours or until liquid knife comes out clean. Serve hot with Coffee Caramel Sauce.
