OCAL SAILOR HOME ON LEAVE

F 1|c Jack Sitterson of Kenans ville, arrived home Wednesday for a ten day leave. He is now stationed at Lambert Field, St Louis, Citizens of Duplin to Appear Before County Commissioners To Ask Outlawing of Wine.

Representative citizens from various sections, and churches of several denominations are expected to meet before the Duplin County Commmissioners, next Monday, May 7th.. at two o'clock, for the purpose of having the sale of wine prohibited in Duplin County. This movement is spon-sored by the Allied Church League, an organization composed of the churches of practically all denominations. The recent State Legislature passed laws giving the County Commissioners the authority to prohibit the sale of wine in the County, except in the case of incorporated towns. The town commissioners will have this right. The County Commissioners, in order to act wisely, want to know the will of the citizens of the County in regard to the wine issue The opportunity will be given to the citizens to let their desires be known at this meeting, on Monday, May 7th., at two o'clock, at the Court House in Kenansville.
