Mrs. Bostic Entertains Bridge Club

Mrs. Norwood Bostic was the delightful hostess Tuesday evening when she entertained her bridge club at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller.

The living room, where tables were set for play, was attractively decorated with vari-colored verbenas.

After several interesting progressions Miss Eva Carter was awarded novelty soap for scoring high and Mrs. Thomas Rogers received powder for second high.

Mrs. Bostic, assisted by her mother and sister, Miss Margaret Miller, served heavenly hash with cookies to Mesdames Rogers, L. A. Brown, L. S. Whittle, Stacy Britt and Misses Hazel and Eva Carter.

BAPTIST CIRCLES

The Rosa Hocutt Powell Circle met Monday afternoon in the home of Miss Eula Powell with Mrs. J. T. Gresham, Sr., as joint hostess and Mrs. L. H. Brown presiding. Rev. J. C. Powell, home from mission service in Africa, gave the devotionals and chose the 23rd Psalm, which was read in reverse and giving the viewpoint of the sinner instead of the Christian interpretation. He also discussed some of his work in The Dark Continent in regard to burying the dead. Mrs. J. C. Brock spoke on "Cottage Prayer". Mrs. J. R. Eardon dismissed with prayer. The hostesses served ice cream, cookies and nuts.

The George Rollins Circle met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Fred Gaylor with Mrs. C. V. Garner, joint hostess, Mrs. B. W. Pickett presided and Mrs. Robert Blackmore led the devotionals. The program was given by Mrs. G. D. Bennett in an interesting manner after which special music was rendered by Misses Mae Brock, Betty Anne Huffam, Sara Gaylor and Janice Draughon. The hostesses served an ice cream course topped with nuts and pound cake.

The Katie Murray Circle was entertained Monday night by Mesdames A. L. Humphrey and Thomas Rogers, in the home of Mrs. Humphrey. Mrs. L. O. Williams presided and Mrs. Paul Sharpe had charge of the program, assisted by Mrs. Williams, Mrs. E. F. Strickland and Misses Margaret Woodard, Annie Kate Powell and Hazel Carter. Mrs. L. S. Whittle read the devotionals. Mrs. D. T. Chambers closed the meeting with prayer. The hostesses served a chicken salad course with coco colas.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES

The Sallie Falson Peirce Circle met Sunday afternoon at the church with 15 present, presided over by the Leader, Mrs. W. P. Bridgers. Opening the meeting, Mrs. J. E. Williams, at the piano, presented "What A Friend We Have in Jesus." Miss Nell Bowden had charge of the Bible Study. Mrs. John Frederick discussed an article entitled "Why Concern Myself." Mrs. L. A. Brown gave a report of the George Worth Band, of which she is the leader.

Circle No. 2 met Monday afternoon at the church with Mrs. L. B. Hule presiding and 12 present. Mrs. F. J. Baars led the Bible Study which was combined with the program "Why Concern Myself," as taken from the Book of John.

METHODIST CIRCLES

The W. S. of C. S., Circle No. 1, met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gordon West, at West Side, with 14 present. Mrs. E. T. Turnley, Chairman, was in the chair and Mrs. A. M. Williams led the devotionals and gave an interesting discussion on "Doors" as taken from Rev. 3:20. The program was in charge of Mrs. D. J. Middleton. At the end of the program the hostess served strawberry shortcake with tea.

Circle No. 2, met Tuesday night with Mrs. Hopton Smith and 9 present. Mrs. J. A. Rackley, Chairman presided. Mrs. M. A. Smith led the devotionals and taught the Mission Study Book in an interesting manner. The hostess served a tempting fruit salad course with tea.

WITH THE SICK

How to Stretch Leftover Meat

Single cup of cooked veal or chicken combines nicely with custard mixture to serve six. Green salad, rolls, a glass of milk completes nutritious lunch or dinner menu.

Here's a meal for six, made out of practically nothing, and it solves a common "leftover" problem, too!

Next time you have a small amount of cooked chicken or veal on hand, serve it up in a custard mixture for an unusual luncheon, dinner or buffet supper casserole.

Remember the secret of good custard is in slow baking, so be sure the temperature of the oven is not too high.

Chicken or Veal Custard

- 2 cups bottled milk
 - 3 eggs
 - 1 cup cooked, diced meat
 - 4 tablespoons sliced stuffed olives
 - 1 teaspoon chopped parsley
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 - 1 tablespoon melted fat (or bacon drippings)
- Add bottled milk to slightly beaten eggs, beat until blended. Stir in all remaining ingredients. Pour mixture into six well-greased custard cups or individual casseroles. Bake in slow oven (300 deg. F.) 40 to 45 minutes.

TO THOSE WHO SACRIFICED...

Some men are awarded the Purple Heart posthumously. Some live to wear it with pride and memories. Memories of, by how slim a chance they lived while others died.

The spirit of those who fall and of those who survive is the same. Each here in battle WOULD give all with a full understanding that only the perpetuation of freedom is worth such sacrifice.

WE can help the living and honor our dead heroes only by doing all we can to shorten the war.
