Wanted

Dead Or Alive

STILL AT LARGE: One of the world's most dangerous gangsters, guilty of the most heinous crimes in all history. Has record of having ravished women and children; of having tortured civilians and men in uniform, leaving them to languish in filthy prisons or to die in open fields. Has seized lands which he has not the slightest claims. Has resisted every opportunity to deal honestly with other nations. The last of the leaders of the original Axis mob of gangsters, he is a menace to society.

Reward

TO THE NATIONS responsible for bringing this criminal to justice, DEAD OR ALIVE, will be paid Freedom of Speech, Freedom of Worship, Freedom from Fear, and Freedom from Want, to the amount of a lifetime of peace and security.

"By the dawn's early light" a young American patriot inspired by the sight of our red, white and blue flag flying over a battlefield—in his heart the words which generations of Americans after him have learned to sing with reverence. The Star Spangled Banner was composed in 1814, and its words ring as true during the present conflict. "And this be our Motto, 'in God is our trust!' And the star spangled banner in triumph shall wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave." How overwhelming would Francis Scott Key's joy have been, could he but have known that his song was to become the national anthem of the land he loved so well and in which he had such strong faith! How richly he merits our dedicating an added War Bond purchase to our nation in his name—on this Great World Occasion—V-DAY IN EUROPE...
