DR. F. L. NORRIS IN GOLDSBORO HOSPITAL

Dr. F. L. Norris, popular Beulaville physician, returned to his home from James Walker Hospital, Wilmington, Saturday. However, his condition became so much worse that he was taken Wednesday to a Goldsboro hospital for further diagnosis and treatment.

THIGPEN - STRICKLAND

Before an altar of palms, interspersed with tall standards bearing white tapers and baskets of white carnations and gladioli, the marriage of Miss Phaeatrice Strickland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fronis Strickland of Tabor City, and Wilton A. Thigpen of Raleigh, formerly of Beulaville, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Thigpen of Warsaw, was solemnized in the Cherry Grove Baptist Church near Tabor City, in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

The Rev. L. L. Todd of Bladenboro received the marriage vows, and preceding the ceremony, Miss Cathern Richardson sang "I Love You Truly". Wedding music was rendered by Misses Florine Strickland and Mary Alice Williamson. The bride entered with her uncle, Mr. E. C. Richardson, who gave her in marriage. She was gowned in a street length model of white, triple sheer with white hat and accessories, and a corsage of white roses and stephanotis.

The maid-of-honor, the bride's only attendant, Mrs. Morris Mitchell of Spring Hope, was attired in a dress of white, triple sheer, street length, with which she wore a small pink hat and pink gloves. Her flowers were pink carnations. David Gordon Richardson was best man, and ushers were Winfred and Roger Richardson, cousins of the bride.

Following the wedding ceremony, the bridal party and out-of-town relatives were entertained at an informal chicken dinner at Little Pee Dee Lodge near Nickols, S. C.

Mrs. Thigpen received her education at Chadbourn and Peace College, Raleigh. Mr. Thigpen graduated from Beulaville High School and King's Business College, Raleigh. He recently received a Medical Discharge from the U. S. C. G. At present he holds a responsible position with the Seaboard Railroad in Raleigh, where the couple will make their home.
