At Ingold Church; F. W. Mc-Gowen of Kenansville, Moderator; Plan two-day Meeting Next Year;; Highlights of Session; Votes Employ Associational Missionary.

The one hundred and eighteenth annual session of the Eastern Baptist association was held Tuesday, October 9, at the Ingold Baptist Church. The theme of the session was "Following Christ from Victory to Victory."

It was an all-day and evening meeting, beginning at 10 a. m. and closing with a missionary sermon by the Rev. G. N. Ashley of Salemburg, at 8:40 in the evening. Several well-informed speakers appeared on the program and reports were heard from the many churches comprising the association. The annual sermon was preached by the Rev. J. V. Case at 11:50 in the morning. I. G. Greer, superintendent of the Bapwas among the speakers at the evening session.

A public dinner was served at the noon hour.

The session voted to employ a full time Associational Missionary and Rev. Gilmer Beck of Lexington was given the appointment. and has had training in the Louisville Baptist Seminary. SOLID CAR LOAD COFFEE TO ARRIVE IN WARSAW

Quinn Wholesale Company in Warsaw makes it a first for Duplin County. A solid railroad car load of Old Mansion Coffee is now rolling towards Warsaw and Quinn's place of business. It will be the first time in the history of the county that a solid car load of coffee has been shipped here, Mr. Quinn is expecting the shipment to arrive some time next week.

Coffee drinkers need not fear a shortage of the national drink any longer, Mr. Quinn said. Last year the Quinn Company placed third among wholesalers in North Carolina in the sale of Old Mansion Coffee.
