

Warsaw News Of Interest To Every One

MISS DICKSON AND LT. STRICKLAND WED IN GREENWOOD, FLA., EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The marriage of Miss Ada Virginia Dickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dickson, of Greenwood, Florida, and John Edward Strickland, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Strickland, of Warsaw, was solemnized on Wednesday, September 26, at 7 o'clock, in the Trinity Episcopal Church, St. Augustine, Florida.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Morgan Ashley. George Lucas, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music, which included "Ave Maria," a Schubert rendition, and other appropriate numbers prior to the ceremony. "Meditation" was softly played during the ceremony and the traditional marches were used.

The bride wore a dusty rose gabardine semi-tailored suit, with black hat and accessories. Her corsage was of purple orchids and her only ornament was a family heirloom bracelet.

Miss Grace Sullivan, the bride's only attendant, wore a brown tailored suit with a corsage of red rosebuds.

Lt. William Morrissey, USNR, of Jacksonville, Florida, served as best man.

Following the ceremony, the bride and bridegroom left for a brief honeymoon, after which they will make their home in Warsaw.

Mr. Strickland was recently discharged from the Navy Reserve in which he served several years. Soon after receiving his commission he went to the Pacific and was aboard the Carrier Hornet, piloting planes striking at the Jap homeland. When returned to the States several months ago, he was promoted to 2nd Lt. and was awarded several citations including the Distinguished Flying Cross. Prior to entering the Navy he was a student at State College.

her recent marriage was Miss Helen Wright, of Raleigh, with guest towels. Mrs. L. S. Whittle received a dish towel for scoring high and Mrs. Robert Blackmore was awarded a set of novelty woven coasters for low.

The hostess served a dainty frozen fruit salad with ritz cheese biscuits and coffee.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES

The Sallie Faison Peirce Circle held its October meeting Sunday afternoon in the Church Auditorium with 12 members present and Mrs. W. P. Bridgers, presiding. Mrs. J. E. Williams played for the call to worship, "An Evening Prayer." The Bible Study was in charge of Mrs. J. W. Farrior, the topic being, "When In a Time Like This." Mrs. Frank Haislip gave an interesting article, "Sharing God's Good News" and the meeting closed with "Lead On O King Eternal" followed by prayer by Mrs. John Frederick.

Circle No. 2 met Monday afternoon with the Chairman, Mrs. L. B. Huie, in her home with 11 present. Mrs. E. P. Ewers had charge of the program, which included the Bible Study. Her discussion was taken from the Say So Series and she presented it in an interesting manner. Following the book, Mrs. Ewers led an informal discussion. The hostess served sandwiches and coffee.

Mrs. Berry Entertains At Afternoon Party

One of the loveliest parties of the season was that given Friday afternoon when Mrs. Paul Berry was the most gracious hostess entertaining at her home on Pine Street.

The Berry home was ensuite for the occasion and artistic arrangements of glant dahlias graced auxiliary tables throughout the rooms where nine tables of bridge were in play.

During the progressions refreshing fruit punch was served and at the conclusion of the games Mrs. R. H. Best, Jr. received a powder mit for scoring high, and Fannie Wilson was awarded note sheets for low and Miss Sallie Bowden, hi-jacks, for traveling prize. The hostess remembered Mrs. Ben Bowden, of Fayetteville, with novelty wrappings and Mrs. Edward Strickland, recent bride, with Coty bath powder.

Mrs. Berry, assisted by Mesdames Ralph Best and Robert Blackmore, served a tempting frozen fruit salad course with ham biscuits, pecan rolls and coffee to the guests. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Bowden of Fayetteville and Mrs. Joe Best of Clinton.

Philathea Class

Entertains At Supper

The Philathea Class of the Baptist Sunday School entertained on Thursday evening at the Legion home at a barbecue supper, honoring their husbands.

The Legion Lounge was attractively decorated with bowls of fall flowers and the banquet tables held arrangements of roses and green burning candles.

The invocation was pronounced by Mrs. G. V. Stephens, Teacher, and following a delicious barbecue supper with individual lemon pies, the guests were led in interesting and amusing stunts and contests by Mrs. E. F. Strickland and Miss Mary Hester Powell, Class President, Miss Powell, who leaves soon to enter training at John Hopkins Hospital, was presented a lovely red leather bill fold by Mrs. Stephens, from the Katie Murray Missionary Circle whose number include the Philathea Bible Class.

Mrs. Hobbs Entertains At Bridge

Mrs. Frank Hobbs delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at her home with four tables of bridge.

The living room and den were thrown together and decorated with bouquets of fall flowers, in hues of purple and yellow.

During the progressions, iced drinks were served with salted nuts and homemade candies and when scores were totaled, Mrs. Allen Draughon received a letter holder for scoring high. Mrs. David Currie and Mrs. Edward Strickland, recent brides, were remembered with attractive double decks of cards and Mrs. Hubert Worthington, also bride of the summer, was presented china in her pattern.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Metta Greene, served a tempting sweet course, of fruit cake topped with whipped cream and coffee to Mesdames Draughon, Currie, Worthington, Strickland, Glenn Rollins, Lawrence Brown, L. S. Whittle, Sterling Marriner Milton West, Thomas Rogers, Q. J. Sutton, E. F. Strickland, G. V. Penney, Stacy Britt and Misses Margaret Miller, Hazel and Eva Carter.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Potter, of Warsaw, announce the birth of a son, Paul Bobo Potter, Jr., on Saturday, October 6, 1945. Memorial General Hospital, Kinston. Mrs. Potter is the former Miss Martha Gresham, of Warsaw.

Mrs. Brock Entertains S. S. Class

Mrs. J. C. Brock entertained her class of nine year old girls of the Baptist Sunday School Wednesday evening at an informal party at her home on Hill St.

The living room was decorated with late fall flowers and games and contests were led by her daughter, Miss Mae Brock, assisted by Miss Sarah Gaylor.

Following the games the girls were taken to the Warsaw Drug

Store, where they were treated to chocolate sundaes.

Miss Strickland Honored On Birthday

Miss Verna Mae "Shorty" Strickland was honored Thursday night when her mother, Mrs. A. J. Strickland and sister, Mrs. Belton Minshew entertained the Methodist League in the home of Mrs. Strickland, on Miss Strickland's birthday.

Lovely fall flowers made a pretty setting for the games and contests that were enjoyed by the young folks after which delicious punch, cookies, sandwiches and nuts were served to Misses Martha Jean Surratt, Evelyn Parker, Barbara Thompson, Wilma Martin, Julia Winders, Jean Gardner, and Wayne West, Hal Wiggs and Edmund Raynor.

BAPTIST CIRCLES

The George Rollins Circle was entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. J. C. Miller and Mrs. Allen Draughon in the home of the latter with 20 present. Mrs. B. W. Pickett presided. Mrs. F. J. Thomas read devotionals from 2 Corinthians and Mrs. Robert Blackmore taught the mission study book, "Pray Ye" in a most interesting manner. After the business the hostesses served a tempting frozen fruit salad course with cookies and cheese biscuits.

Mrs. C. J. Brown was hostess to the Rosa Hocutt Powell Circle on Monday afternoon at her home with 15 members present and Mrs. L. H. Brown, Chairman, presiding. Mrs. W. A. Carter led the Bible Study and Mrs. R. E. L. Wheelless taught the mission study book, "Pray Ye" in a remarkable manner. The hostess served a delightful fruit salad course with a drink and cheese biscuits. During the social hour the hostess rendered organ selections on her electric

Store, where they were treated to chocolate sundaes.

Mesdames Mosley Phillips and H. C. McCullen were hostesses to the Katie Murray Circle Monday night in the home of Mrs. Phillips on Route 1, entertaining 27 members. The Chairman, Mrs. L. O. Williams was in the chair and Mrs. G. Van Stephens led the Bible Study from 2 Timothy 2: 1-15. A most interesting program on "Investing in Tomorrow's Leadership" was given by Mrs. Phillips' Chairman, assisted by Mrs. A. L. Humphrey, Mrs. M. H. Baar, Mrs. Hubert Worthington, and Miss Eva Carter. The hostesses served a refreshing iced pineapple drink with cookies, nuts and candy.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Strickland and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Strickland spent Thursday in Goldsboro.

Mrs. L. A. Brown accompanied friends of Kinston to Raleigh on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bowden of Fayetteville were week end guests of her mother, Mrs. C. J. Brown.

Mrs. M. C. West is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Emmett Pollock, in Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. H. S. Kornegay has returned from the Goldsboro Hospital, where she underwent an appendicitis operation last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones and son, Richard, spent Wednesday at Duke Hospital, Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wall had as their week end guests her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fitzgerald, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barden had as their week end guest her nephew, Cpl. Leo M. Demullin, of Ft. Bragg and they visited relatives in Bogue and Beaufort Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farrior and Mrs. E. J. Hill accompanied Mrs. J. E. Shaw, Jr., and daughter, Ann, to Raleigh, Saturday, where they were joined by Mrs. J. E. Shaw, Sr., who accompanied them to Macon for a two-week's visit. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Barden, Jr., and children of Philadelphia, Pa., were guests last week of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barden, Sr. Mr. Barden left Monday to visit his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Giles in Richmond, Va.

Miss Lizzie Trevellan, of Ashland, Va., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Best.

Mrs. Carrie Poole and Miss Elizabeth Moore returned Sunday from Carolina Beach, where they spent several weeks.

Misses Frances Stephens, Elois

Mrs. Stacy Bellt
Warsaw Editor
SUBSCRIPTION AGENT
Dial 2936

Williams and Ernestine Greene and Mrs. Joe Freeman attended the Duke-Navy game in Durham Saturday.

Mrs. Lela Middleton had as her week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Middleton and family, of Wilmington, and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Sewell, of Kinston. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Clara Middleton, who had visited in Warsaw several weeks.

ate make.

$6.95

Smooth looking felt designed to flatter... charm.

From our new collection by Gage

A. Brooks

Department Store
Warsaw, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith In New York

Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Smith of Warsaw left Monday night for New York City where they will purchase new merchandise for the Duplin Trading Company. During their two weeks stay they will visit two of Mr. Smith's sisters in Return, N. J.

Recent Brides Honored At Party

Mrs. Allen Draughon was hostess Tuesday afternoon at two tables of bridge when she entertained for Mrs. Edward Strickland, who before her marriage was Miss Virginia Dickson, of Jacksonville, Fla.

In the living room and dining room, where tables were in play, were lovely arrangements of white bride's roses.

At the conclusion the hostess presented Mrs. Strickland with a nest of ash trays and remembered Mrs. David Currie, who before

NEWS!

A CARLOAD-CHUCKED FULL OF
OLD MANSION
COFFEE

Yes, Suh, folks-every grain goes to Quinn Wholesale Co.
in Warsaw, N. C.

And, Ladeccees and Gentlemannnn... this proves one Big, Con-...clu-sive... In-disputable... Ir-refutable... FACT... You Good Folks in Noth Car'lina KNOW GOOD COFFEE... and QUINN WHOLESALE CO. know you know it! That's sho' one mouth-watering chunk of Coffee—a CAR-LOAD... and we are deece-lighted we could ship it to you... We hope that innnnnn-comparable AROMA can be sniffed for miles around... and that every soul there enjoys a BBBig share of OLD MANSION'S marrrr-veillillious Pure Blend Flavor and deeece-licious Goodness. Thank you, Ladeccees and Gentlemenn!

JUST RIGHT! — Every n' minute day or night

Old Mansion
The Best Coffee you ever tasted

We Are Expecting

KELVINATOR ELECTRIC RANGES

KELVINATOR ELECTRIC REFRIGERATORS

THOR WASHING MACHINES

WE EXPECT TO HAVE THESE ITEMS ON DISPLAY BY

OCTOBER 20, 1945

Warsaw Furniture Co.

WARSAW,

NORTH CAROLINA