Fashion Frocks of the Week

A "LITTLE MIDDLE"

Interest is centered at the waistline this fall. And there's a good reason for it. Style news began to come out of Paris just about the time the G.I.'s were going in. And both carried enthusiastic reports of the doll-sized waistline of the Parisienne beauties. The G.I. expressed his approval with a long, low whistle. And American designers concentrated attention on the waistline in their styles for the new season.

Here's a clever bit of magic in wool jersey. Fashion Frocks' magician-designer used an elasticized midriff to make a waistline disappear into thin air! Broad shoulders, a bloused bodice, and full skirt aid the waist-disappearing act. And full-cut sleeves, deep and winged at the armholes and fit to the waist on an elasticized band, are part of Fashion's softening-up process.

Miss Janet Dobson and Mr. George Giles visited in Greenville last Monday.

Messrs. George Penney, Oliver Stokes, H. D. McKay and Gilbert Alphin went on a fishing trip last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Currie and Florrie visited in Fayetteville last week end.

GIBBS - WALLACE VOWS SPOKEN IN CHURCH

On October 23, 1945, the marriage of Miss Carolyn Wallace and Mr. Donald Seawell Gibbs was solemnized in Smith's Presbyterian Church.

A beautiful color scheme was carried out using pine interspersed with red and green autumn foliage. Large baskets of white dahlias and chrysanthemums were on either side of the altar candelabra with white candles.

Rev. N. P. Farrior united the couple, using the ring ceremony. Mrs. Jasper Smith of Pink Hill played Mendelshon's Wedding March and Mrs. Walter Stroud of Kenansville, sang "Because" and a prayer during part of the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. Willard Grady, of Seven Springs. Miss Amelia Grady, of Raleigh, was maid of honor. Little Lovey Ellen Kelly, a cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer.

The bride wore a going away suit of brown gabardine with matching accessories. Her corsage was pink talisman roses and fern.

The ushers were Don J. Smith of Norfolk, Va., and G. N. Price of Seven Springs. Both were in military uniform.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Wallace of Pink Hill. She is a graduate of B. F. Grady School and attended Montreat College.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Gibbs of Seven Springs. He is a graduate of the Seven Springs School and attended State College. He just returned from the Pacific area where he has been in service for three years.

PEANUTS MOVE TO SHELLERS

Harry Westcott, marketing specialist with the State Department of Agriculture, said recently that North Carolina farmers are now in the process of digging and picking what might have been one of the largest peanut crops on record. However, almost continuous rains in July and August and the growth of grass have reduced the yield in general, and in some sections growers are reporting as much as a 50 per cent decrease in yield.

He added that picking is progressing slowly, with many growers showing dissatisfaction with prices and wanting adjustments to offset the decreased incomes.

According to Westcott, the quality of the peanuts this year is good. Reports are that the shells are thin and well developed and the kernels are yielding a high meat content.
